

(f) provide for payment of compensation and remuneration to persons affected by the regulations;
(g) provide for the apprehension, trial and punishment of persons offending against the regulations;
Provided that nothing in this section shall authorize the making of provision for the trial of persons by Military Courts.

5. The War Emergency Regulations may provide for empowering such authorities or persons as may be specified in the regulations to make proclamations, orders and rules for any of the purposes for which such regulations are authorized by this Law to be made, and may contain such incidental and supplementary provisions as appear to the Governor to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the regulations.

6. Any regulation made under this Law, or any proclamation, order or rule made in pursuance of any such regulation, shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any Law; and any provision of a Law which may be inconsistent with any Regulation or any such proclamation, order or rule shall, whether that provision has or has not been amended, modified or suspended in its operation under section 4, to the extent of such inconsistency have no effect so long as such regulation, proclamation, order or rule remains in force.

7. Every document purporting to be an instrument made or issued by the Governor or other authority or person in pursuance of this Law, or of any regulations made under this Law, and to be signed by or on behalf of the Governor or such other authority or person, shall be received in evidence, and shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to be an instrument made or issued by the Governor or by such authority or person.

8. The provisions of sections 4, 5, 6 and 7 and of any regulations made under this Law shall be, and continue to be, of full force and effect throughout the existence of any state of emergency which from time to time may be proclaimed under this Law, but upon the determination of the state of emergency in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) of section 3, they shall then cease to have effect except as respects things previously done or omitted to be done.

Supplement No. 1 published with Gazette No. 18 of 1978.

THE EMERGENCY
(PUBLIC SECURITY) LAW
(REVISED)

CAYMAN ISLANDS

THE EMERGENCY (PUBLIC SECURITY) LAW (Revised)
(Cap. 48)

Originally enacted
2nd August, 1939
Published in revised form this 28th day of August, 1978, by authority of the Law
Revision Law (No. 19 of 1975)

1 This Law may be cited as the Emergency (Public Security) Law (Revised).
Short title.

2. In this Law —
Interpretation.

“Law” includes any Law, regulation, rule, order, proclamation, or bye-law, in force in the Islands;

3. (1) The Governor in the event of Her Majesty being engaged in any war, or whenever at any time it appears to him that a state of war between Her Majesty and any Foreign State is imminent, may, in the interest of the public security, by proclamation declare that a State of War emergency exists.

(2) Every state of emergency so proclaimed shall be deemed to continue until determined by a further proclamation made by the Governor in that behalf.

4. (1) Wherever a state of emergency has been proclaimed in accordance with the provisions of section 3, the Governor may make such regulations (in this Law referred to as “the War Emergency Regulations”), as appear to him to be necessary or expedient for securing the public safety, the defence of the Islands, the maintenance of public order and the suppression of mutiny, rebellion and riot, and for maintaining supplies and services essential to the life of the community.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sub-section (1), such regulations may, so far as appears to the Governor to be necessary or expedient for any of the purposes mentioned in such subsection —
(a) make provisions for the detention of persons and the deportation and exclusion of persons from the Islands;
(b) authorize —
(i) the taking of possession or control, on behalf of Her Majesty, of any property or undertaking;
(ii) the acquisition on behalf of Her Majesty of any property other than land;
(c) authorize the entering and search of any premises;
(d) provide for amending any Law, for suspending the operation of any Law, and for applying any Law with or without modification;
(e) provide for charging, in respect of the grant or issue of any licence, permit, certificate or other document for the purposes of the regulations, such fee as may be prescribed by or under the regulations;
