

THE VEXATIOUS ACTIONS LAW
(REVISED)

CAYMAN ISLANDS

Supplement No. 2 published with Gazette No. 25 of 1978.

THE VEXATIOUS ACTIONS LAW
(Cap. 182)
(Revised)

Originally enacted
30th September, 1937

Published in revised form this fourth day of December, 1978 by authority of the Law Revision Law (No. 19 of 1978).

1. This Law may be cited as the Vexatious Actions Law (Revised).

Short title.

2. If, on an application made by the Clerk of the Court under this section, the Chief Justice of the Grand Court is satisfied that any person has habitually and persistently and without any reasonable ground instituted vexatious legal proceedings, whether in the Grand Court or in any inferior court, and whether against the same person or against different persons, the Chief Justice may, after hearing that person or giving him an opportunity of being heard, order that no legal proceedings shall without the leave of the Grand Court be instituted by him in any court, and such leave shall not be given unless the Chief Justice of the Grand Court is satisfied that the proceedings are not an abuse of the process of the court and that there is a prima facie ground for the proceedings.

Power to prohibit institution of action without leave.

Publication in revised form authorized this 28th day of November, 1978.

JENNY MANDERSON
Clerk of the Executive Council.
