A Law to amend the Grand Court law
(Law 8 of 1975)

ENACTED by the Legislature of the Cayman Islands.

- Short title.

Amendment of Law 8 of 1975.

"Orders for interim payment."
1. This Law may be cited as the Grand Court (Amendment) Law, 1981.

2. The Grand Court Law is amended by inserting the following new section immediately after section 21 —

21A (1) The power to make Rules under section 21 shall include power to make provision for enabling the Court, in such circumstances as may be specified in such Rules, to make an order requiring a party to any proceedings pending before it to make an interim payment of such amount as may be specified in the order, either by payment into Court or (if the order so provides) by paying it to another party to the proceedings.
- (2) Rules made under subsection (1) may include —

(a) provision for enabling the party who, in pursuance of such order, has made an interim payment to recover the whole or part of the amount thereof in such circumstances as may be determined in accordance with the Rules;

(b) such incidental, supplementary and consequential provisions as the Rules Committee may consider necessary or expedient.
