

- Governor, impose a curfew-
- (i) throughout the Cayman Islands;
 - (ii) on any of the Islands; or
 - (iii) in respect of any district, or place within any district on any of the Islands, between such hours as may be specified, requiring persons within that locality to remain within their premises during the hours so specified unless authorised in writing by a constable who is in charge of enforcing the said curfew.

(2) Where a cordon is imposed, the cordon shall endure for a period not exceeding twelve hours.

(3) Where a curfew is imposed, the curfew shall endure for a period not exceeding forty-eight hours.

29B. (1) A constable may stop and search a person whom he reasonably suspects to be in contravention of section 29A.

(2) The search of a person under this section shall be carried out by a constable of the same gender.

29C. (1) A person who contravenes section 29A is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars and to imprisonment for six months.

(2) Where a constable with reasonable cause, suspects that section 29A has been contravened he may arrest without a warrant anyone whom he, with reasonable cause, suspects to be guilty of the contravention.

(3) Where a person is convicted of the contravention of section 29A, the Court may order that any goods or money in respect of which the offence was committed and is in his possession, be forfeited to the Crown or otherwise disposed of.”
