

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations give effect to the recent amendment of the Immigration Law by exempting persons who travel under Cayman Islands passports from the requirements of section 47(1) of that Law. This section required all travellers, including Caymanians, to complete and hand to an immigration officer a disembarkation or embarkation card when disembarking in or leaving the Islands. These requirements will not apply to persons who hold Cayman Islands passports and can produce to the immigration officer their valid passport when entering or leaving the Islands.
