CONTINUATION OF THE CAYMAN ISLANDS INSTITUTE OF PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNTANTS

Continuation of the Cayman Islands Society
of Professional
Accountants as the Cayman Islands Institute
of Professional
Accountants

3. There shall continue to be established a body corporate formerly known as the Cayman Islands Society of Professional Accountants which shall be known as the Cayman Islands Institute of Professional Accountants and which shall have perpetual succession and a common seal and shall consist of -

- (a) all persons who immediately before the date of commencement of this Law were members, associate members or students of the Institute until pursuant to this Law, they cease to be members, associate members or students of the Institute; and
- (b) all persons who on or after the date of commencement of this Law, are registered under this Law as members, associate members or students, until pursuant to this Law they cease to be members, associate members or students of the Institute.

4. (1) There shall be continued a Council of the Institute which shall, upon the expiration of the tenure of its members, be reconstituted in accordance with this section.

The Council

(2) The members of the Council shall be appointed in accordance with the articles of association of the Institute and shall be responsible for the management of the affairs of the Institute.

(3) The objects of the Institute are set out in Schedule 1 and shall be included in the Memorandum of Association of the Institute.

(4) The Cabinet, on the recommendation of the Council, may by Order amend Schedule 1.

(5) If Schedule 1 is amended, the Memorandum of Association of the Institute shall automatically be amended accordingly.

(6) A resolution of the Institute shall not be required if the Memorandum of Association of the Institute is amended pursuant to subsection (5).

5. The Council shall manage, administer and keep proper accounts of the funds of the Institute.

The Institute's funds

6. (1) The accounts of the Institute shall be audited annually by a sole practitioner public accountant licensed under section 11 or 12 or by a firm of public accountants in which each partner, director or person holding an equivalent position engaged in public practice is licensed under section 11 or 12, appointed each year in accordance with the Institute's articles of association.

The Institute's accounts

(2) A copy of the audited accounts shall be kept at the office of the Institute and shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by any member, associate member or student, or pursuant to an authority empowered to do so under any other Law.

REGISTRATION AND LICENSING

Registrar and the register

7. (1) There shall continue to be a Registrar of the Institute who shall, on the commencement of this Law, be the executive officer designated with this responsibility by the Council.

(2) The Registrar shall keep and maintain a register in which shall be entered the name of -

- (a) each person who is a member of the Institute;
- (b) each person who is licensed under section 11 or 12; and

- (b) is or seeks to be a sole practitioner public accountant or a partner, director or person holding an equivalent position in a firm of public accountants;
- (c) is either registered as a relevant sole practitioner or the firm of public accountants of which the person is a partner, director or person holding an equivalent position has registered as a relevant firm under section 38;

- (d) pays the prescribed fee; and
- (e) satisfies any other requirements relating to fitness and propriety that may be prescribed, may apply in the prescribed form to be licenced by the Council to engage in public practice from or within the Islands.

(2) The Council, if satisfied that a person satisfies the requirements for licensing under subsection (1), shall issue a licence to the person.

Licensing of work permit holders

12. (1) A person who is not Caymanian or a permanent resident and who -

- (a) is registered as a member under section 8 and continues to meet the qualifications for membership specified in section 8;
- (b) is or seeks to be a sole practitioner public accountant or a partner, director or person holding an equivalent position in a firm of public accountants;
- (c) is either registered as a relevant sole practitioner or the firm of public accountants of which the person is a partner, director or person holding an equivalent position has registered as a relevant firm under section 38;
- (d) pays the prescribed fee; and
- (e) satisfies any other requirements relating to fitness and propriety that may be prescribed,

may apply in the prescribed form to be licenced by the Council to engage in public practice from or within the Islands.

(2) The Council, if satisfied that a person meets the requirements for licensing under subsection (1), shall issue a licence to the person.

(3) Where a person is qualified to be a member by virtue of the person having been granted permission under section 53 of the Immigration Law (2012 Revision) to engage in a gainful occupation, the Council may only issue a licence to engage in public practice from or within the Islands to the person if the Council is satisfied that -

- (a) the person or a firm of public accountants with which that person is affiliated has a place of business in the Islands from which public accounting services are carried on; and
- (b) there is a special need to issue the licence having regard to circumstances the Council considers relevant.

(4) Where the person is qualified to be a member by virtue of the person having been granted permission under section 48 of the Immigration Law (2012

Revision) to engage in a gainful occupation but the Council is not satisfied that the person is resident in the Islands, the Council may only issue a licence to engage in public practice from or within the Islands to the person if the Council is satisfied that -

- (a) the person or a firm of public accountants with which that person is affiliated has a place of business in the Islands from which public accounting services are carried on; and
- (b) there is a special need to issue the licence having regard to circumstances the Council considers relevant.

(5) A licence granted by the Council under subsection (3) or (4) shall only be granted for a limited duration of time and is subject to the conditions that the Council determines appropriate.

13. (1) A person shall not offer services as a public accountant or engage in public practice, either as a partner, director or person holding an equivalent position in a firm of public accountants or as a sole practitioner, from or within the Islands unless the person is the holder of a valid licence issued under section 11 or 12.

Practising without a licence to be an offence

(2) A firm or company shall not offer services as a firm of public accountants or engage in public practice, unless each partner, director or person holding an equivalent position engaged in public practice, from or within the Islands, in the firm or company is the holder of a valid licence issued under section 11 or 12.

(3) A person who contravenes subsections (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty-five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of one year, or to both; and if the offence for which the person is convicted is continued after conviction that person commits a further offence and is liable to a fine of one hundred dollars for each day on which the offence is so continued.

(4) Where an offence under this section which has been committed by a firm or company is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any partner, director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the firm or company, or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, the person as well as the firm or company is guilty of that offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(5) Where the affairs of a firm or company are managed by its members, subsection (4) shall apply in relation to the acts and defaults of a member of the firm or company in connection with the member's functions of management as if the member was a partner or director of the firm or company.

(6) This section shall not apply to public officers acting in their capacity as such.

Validity and renewal of licence

14. (1) A licence shall take effect on the date specified therein and, subject to this Law, shall expire on the 31st December next following that date.

(2) A licence granted under section 11 or section 12 may be renewed by the Council upon application in the prescribed form, payment of the prescribed fee and satisfaction by the holder thereof of the prescribed requirements.

(3) An application for the renewal of a licence, accompanied by the prescribed fee, shall be submitted not later than 31st January in the year in respect of which the application is made.

(4) A person who fails to renew the person's licence for the succeeding year before the 31st December in the immediately preceding year and whose licence expires on the 31st December of the immediately preceding year shall not be considered to be unlicensed for the purposes of this Law during the period commencing with that date and ending on the 31st January of the succeeding year.

(5) Where a licence has been lost, destroyed or mutilated, it may be replaced by the Council by the issue of a copy thereof upon the application in writing of the holder of the licence and on the payment of the prescribed fee.

Notification of results of applications

15. (1) Where the Council refuses an application made under sections 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 or 14, it shall, within ten days from the date of refusal, give to the applicant written notice of the decision and of the reasons for the refusal.

(2) The applicant may, under section 27, appeal a refusal made by the Council.

List of licence holders to be published

16. (1) The Registrar shall publish by notice in the Gazette -

- (a) in the month of February in each year an alphabetical list of persons who at the 1st February in that year were licensees; and
- (b) as soon as practicable after the grant of a licence at any other time, the name of the licensee.

(2) A copy of the Gazette containing the list referred to in subsection (1)(a) or the names published under subsection (1)(b) is evidence of the facts stated therein.

PART 4 - DISCIPLINE

17. (1) There shall continue to be established a committee of the Institute known as the Investigation Committee which shall, upon the expiration of the tenure of its members be reconstituted in accordance with this section. Investigation Committee

(2) The Investigation Committee shall consist of a chairperson who shall be a member of the Council and not more than seven other members appointed by the Council.

(3) The Council shall appoint members the Council considers to have the necessary knowledge and experience to serve as the Investigation Committee.

(4) Subject to the prior approval of the Council, the Investigation Committee shall have the power to delegate any functions that it considers necessary.

18. Section 19 applies where the Council is of the opinion that, or a complaint is made to the Council alleging that, a person who is a member or licensed under this Law - Professional misconduct

- (a) is, in the performance of the person's professional duties, guilty of misconduct, dishonesty, or incompetence;
- (b) has breached the Institute's professional standards;
- (c) has failed to meet the continuing obligations to be a member specified in section 8(4);
- (d) has breached -
 - (i) this Law; or
 - (ii) any rules made under this Law;
- (e) has breached the standards of professional conduct of an overseas professional accounting institute of which the person is a member;
- (f) for the purpose of procuring or renewing the person's registration as a member, or of obtaining or renewing a licence, has made any statement which to that person's knowledge is false in any material particular or has made any other misleading or fraudulent representation;

- (g) has been convicted in a court of the Islands or elsewhere of a criminal offence which renders the person unfit to be a member or licensee; or
 - (h) has acted in a manner likely to bring the Institute into disrepute.
- Complaints
 - 19. (1) A complaint against a person who is a member or licensed under this Law shall be made to the Council in writing and shall bear the date of the complaint and the signature of the complainant.
 - (2) Unless the Council is of the opinion that a complaint made in accordance with subsection (1) is frivolous or vexatious, it shall refer the matter to the Investigation Committee.
- Investigations and recommendations
 - 20. The Investigation Committee shall investigate each matter referred to it in the prescribed manner and shall either -
 - (a) dismiss the matter; or
 - (b) refer the matter to the Disciplinary Tribunal or to the person's overseas professional accounting institute for its action, or to both.
- Disciplinary and other orders
 - 21. (1) There shall continue to be established a Disciplinary Tribunal which shall, upon the expiration of the tenure of its members be reconstituted in accordance with this section and which shall consider and determine matters referred by the Council or the Investigation Committee to the Disciplinary Tribunal for consideration and determination.
 - (2) There shall be appointed by the Council, on an annual basis, a Chairmanship Panel of the Disciplinary Tribunal which shall consist of no more than three persons and two of the three persons shall not be members of the Institute.
 - (3) Where a matter is referred by the Council or the Investigation Committee to the Disciplinary Tribunal for consideration and determination, the Chairmanship Panel of the Disciplinary Tribunal shall meet for the purposes of appointing a person, who the Chairmanship Panel of the Disciplinary Tribunal considers suitable, to be the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Tribunal for the matter referred.
 - (4) The Chairperson of the Disciplinary Tribunal appointed pursuant to subsection (3) shall, upon receipt of confirmation of the appointment forthwith appoint any number of but not less than two persons, who the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Tribunal considers suitable, to comprise the Disciplinary Tribunal for the purpose of considering and determining the matter referred under subsection (3).

(5) If only two persons are appointed pursuant to subsection (4), the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Tribunal shall ensure that at least one of those persons appointed is a member of the Institute unless the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Tribunal is a member of the Institute but if the number of persons appointed pursuant to subsection (4) exceeds two persons then the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Tribunal shall, taking into consideration the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Tribunal as included in the number of persons comprising the Disciplinary Tribunal, ensure that the majority of persons appointed are not members of the Institute.

(3) The Cabinet in consultation with the Council may make regulations with regard to the conduct of proceedings by the Disciplinary Tribunal and any other matters relating to the Disciplinary Tribunal the Cabinet may consider necessary.

(4) If in relation to a matter referred to the Disciplinary Tribunal, the Disciplinary Tribunal is satisfied that an order of a disciplinary nature should be made, the Disciplinary Tribunal may order any disciplinary action that the Disciplinary Tribunal determines appropriate including but not limited to the following -

- (a) that the name of a member be removed from the register; or
- (b) where a member has been issued with a licence -
 - (i) that the licence be suspended for a specified period not exceeding one year; or
 - (ii) that the licence be revoked.

(5) Where the Council is satisfied, by a certificate of a registered medical practitioner, that a licensee is suffering from an illness or injury which renders the licensee unfit to satisfactorily perform that licensee's duties as a public accountant, the Council may, by order, suspend that licence for a period the Council determines appropriate.

22. (1) An order made by the Disciplinary Tribunal or the Council under section 21 shall - Orders to be registered

- (a) be signed by the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Tribunal or the Chairperson of the Council, as the case may be;
- (b) be filed immediately with the Registrar; and
- (c) subject to section 23(1), take effect -

- (i) where no appeal under section 27 is brought against the order within the period allowed for the appeal, on the expiration of that period;
- (ii) where an appeal is brought and is withdrawn or struck out for want of prosecution or for any other reason, on the withdrawal or striking out of the appeal; or
- (iii) where an appeal is brought and is not withdrawn or struck out, when the appeal is dismissed.

(2) An order when it takes effect shall be acted upon and be enforceable in the same manner as an order of a court of summary jurisdiction.

(3) Upon the taking of effect of an order filed with the Registrar under subsection (1), the Registrar shall -

- (a) in the case of an order that does not provide for the removal of the name of a person from the register, cause a note of the effect of the order to be entered in the register against the name of the person to whom the order relates; and
- (b) in the case of an order providing either for the removal of the name of a person from the register or for the suspension or revocation of a licence, cause a notice stating the effect of the order to be published in the Gazette.

Immediate
implementation of orders

23. (1) If, on making an order under section 21(4)(b), the Disciplinary Tribunal is satisfied that it is necessary for the protection of members of the public, it may order that a licence be suspended or revoked forthwith.

(2) A licensee who is subject to an Order made under subsection (1) may apply to the Grand Court to have the order revoked.

(3) The Grand Court may revoke any order made under subsection (1) and the decision of the Court on any application under subsection (2) shall be final.

Amendment of register
on order

24. (1) The Registrar shall remove the name of a person who is a member or licensed under this Law from the register -

- (a) upon the application of the person;
- (b) upon the failure of the person to pay any prescribed annual fee within nine months after the date on which the fee becomes payable; or
- (c) upon the taking effect of an order of the Disciplinary Tribunal under section 21(4)(a) in relation to that person.

(2) Where a matter concerning a member is referred to the Investigation Committee or the Disciplinary Tribunal under section 19(2) or (3), the member's name shall not be removed from the register under section 21(4)(a) until the matter or any appeal in relation thereto, has been finally disposed of under this Law.

(3) Where the name of a person has been removed from the register a licence issued to the person shall cease to be valid.

25. (1) Where the name of a person has been removed from the register or the licence of a person has been suspended or revoked, the Council may, by notice in writing served by post, require the person to return to the Registrar the person's membership certificate or licence.

Certificate or licence to be returned

(2) A person who fails without reasonable excuse to return the person's membership certificate or licence within fourteen days of the date of a notice served under subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five hundred dollars.

26. (2) Rules or statements of principle or guidance issued under subsection (1) shall be consistent with this Law and shall state the provision of this Law to which they relate.

37. The Institute may, for good cause waive, reduce or defer the payment of any fee imposed by virtue of this Law and any waiver, reduction or deferment of payment shall be published by Notice in the Gazette.

Fee may be waived,
reduced or deferred

PART 6 – QUALITY ASSURANCE

38. (1) For the purposes of this section -

Oversight procedures

- (a) “relevant sole practitioner” means a sole practitioner public accountant who is the holder of a licence issued under section 11 or 12; and
- (b) “relevant firm” means a firm of public accountants where the partners, directors or persons holding an equivalent position in the firm are the holders of a licence issued under section 11 or 12.

(2) A relevant sole practitioner and a relevant firm shall comply with the system of oversight, quality assurance and investigation imposed by the Institute.

(3) A relevant sole practitioner and a relevant firm shall make an application in the prescribed manner and pay the prescribed fee to be registered with the Institute as a sole practitioner or firm which is subject to the Institute’s system of oversight, quality assurance, investigation and penalties.

(4) Registration under subsection (3) is valid for one year and shall be renewed annually.

(5) Registration under this section may be renewed by submitting an application for renewal of registration in the prescribed manner and paying the prescribed fee by a date specified by the Council.

(6) A relevant sole practitioner or a relevant firm who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars; and if the offence for which the relevant sole practitioner or the relevant firm is convicted is continued after conviction the relevant sole practitioner or the relevant firm commits a further offence and is liable to a fine of one hundred dollars for each day on which the offence is so continued.

(7) Where an offence, committed by a relevant firm under subsection (6), is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to have been attributable to neglect by a partner, director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the relevant firm or person who was purporting to act in any of the foregoing capacities, that person is also considered to have committed the offence and is liable to be proceeded against and penalised in accordance with subsection (6).

(8) The Institute may, on terms approved by the Council, delegate, in whole or in part, any of its functions under this section to any person the Council considers necessary for the better exercise of the function.

(9) The Institute shall not delegate a function under this section to a person unless the person has -

- (a) experience in -
 - (i) regulating public accountants;
 - (ii) assisting regulatory authorities in their supervision and investigation of public accountants and their professional activities; and
 - (iii) assessing accounting and assurance standards of regulatory oversight bodies; and
- (b) adequate knowledge in areas relevant to audit and assurance.

SCHEDULE 1

(Section 4)

OBJECTS OF THE INSTITUTE

The objects of the Institute are to -

- (a) govern the discipline, and regulate the professional conduct of members;

- (d) promote, foster and maintain the highest standards of accounting in public practice and commercial and private sector spheres;
- (e) safeguard and enhance the professional standing, interest and reputation of accountants who are members thereof;
- (f) maintain the highest standards of professional etiquette and ethics among its members and encourage the observance of these standards among non-members;

- (g) provide opportunities for discussion and exchange of views among its members, and students, whether or not they are engaged in actual practice;
- (h) encourage and assist in providing increased facilities for the study of accountancy and related subjects and co-operate with bodies that are in pursuit of those objects;
- (i) associate with any regional or international body having objects similar to those of the Institute to further the interests of the profession; and
- (j) do anything that is necessary or incidental to the carrying out of the objects specified in paragraphs (a) to (i).

SCHEDULE 2

(Section 27)

PROVISIONS RELATING TO APPEALS AGAINST DECISIONS OF THE DISCIPLINARY TRIBUNAL OR THE COUNCIL

1. (1) An appeal shall lie to the Grand Court - Civil appeals
- (a) from a refusal by the Council to grant an application for registration made under section 8, 9 or 10 or the renewal of registration;
 - (b) from a refusal by the Council to grant an application for a licence or for the renewal of a licence, made under section 11, 12 or 14; or
 - (c) from an order of the Disciplinary Tribunal or the Council made under section 21 or 23.
- (2) An appeal shall not lie, except by special leave of the Grand Court, from any of the following -
- (a) an order or decision made by consent;
 - (b) an order or decision relating to costs only; or
 - (c) an order or decision made by default for want of appearance or otherwise.
- (3) The party seeking special leave under subsection (2) shall make oath in writing setting forth the party's grounds of appeal and, where applicable, the reasons why the party did not appear at the hearing, and that the appeal involves a matter of substantial justice.

Unrepresented person to be informed of right of appeal

2. The Disciplinary Tribunal or the Council, upon making any decision from which an appeal lies under the Law shall inform any party, of the party's right of appeal, and a note shall be made in the minutes of the meeting of the Disciplinary Tribunal or the Council that the information has been given and in that case the Secretary of the Institute shall, whenever required, furnish the intended appellant with the necessary form of notice and recognisance of appeal.

3. (1) An appellant shall deliver a written notice of appeal, signed by the appellant or the appellant's legal representative, to the Clerk of the Court and to the Secretary of the Institute within three months after the decision is given; and within a further period of seven days after the first period, shall deliver to the Clerk of the Court and to the Secretary of the Institute a statement in writing, signed by the appellant or the appellant's legal representative, setting forth the grounds of the appellant's appeal and shall enter into a recognisance, in a sum, not exceeding five thousand dollars in respect of the costs of the appeal, as the court shall direct, for the due prosecution of the appeal and the compliance by the appellant with all judgments, orders or other decisions of the Grand Court in the matter, and, if the appeal is not allowed the payment of any costs of the proceedings in the appeal, if the Grand Court shall so direct; but in any case the Judge may grant an extension of either period for any sufficient reason and subject to any conditions which seem to the Judge to be fit.

(2) If the appellant fails to serve notice and grounds of appeal and to enter into a recognisance in accordance with subsection (1), the appellant's right of appeal shall cease and determine and the Institute shall be at liberty forthwith to enforce the same according to law.

Appeal not to have effect of suspending decision

4. Subject to section 24(2), the giving of notice of appeal in accordance with this Law shall not have the effect of suspending the decision appealed from pending the determination of the appeal, unless the Judge, upon application made, shall so direct; but upon application made by either party, after notice of appeal has been given, the Judge may make the order the Judge considers fit.

Certified copies of proceedings to be available to appellant and to be sent to the Grand Court

5. The Secretary of the Institute shall supply to an appellant applying for the same a certified copy of the evidence taken, proceedings had and the decision made in the matter to which the appeal relates, and shall make up, certify and transmit to the Grand Court not later than fourteen days from receipt of the written notice of appeal or a further time allowed by the Judge, the original or copies of all original documents, a copy of the evidence taken, proceedings had and the decision made.

6. (1) The Clerk of the Court may list for hearing, at the next ensuing sitting or adjourned sitting of the Grand Court, every appeal in which the grounds of appeal have been lodged seven clear days before the sitting or adjourned sitting.

Setting down appeal for hearing and procedures thereupon

(2) The practice and procedure in relation to the hearing of appeals by the Grand Court, and for the enforcement of the decision upon any appeals, shall be as prescribed by the Grand Court Law (2008 Revision) but in any circumstances in which no provision is made for some matter or any difficulty shall arise the Judge may give directions as to the procedure to be followed.

7. (1) The Grand Court shall have power upon the hearing of any appeal to confirm, reverse, vary or modify the decision against which the appeal is made or to return any matter to the Disciplinary Tribunal or the Council, with the opinion and directions of the Grand Court thereon, or to set aside the proceedings and order a new hearing or to make an order in the matter it may think just; and may, by the order, exercise any power which the Disciplinary Tribunal or the Council could have exercised; and the order shall have the same effect and may be enforced in the same manner as if it had been made by the Disciplinary Tribunal or the Council.

Powers of the Grand Court upon hearing the appeal

(2) In the exercise of its appellate jurisdiction the Grand Court may amend any defect in form in any part of the proceedings, or may allow any party to amend or correct any defect or irregularity upon the terms the Judge considers just; and no proceeding shall be set aside for defect of form or similar irregularity where it appears that the party called upon to answer had due notice of the substance of the hearing or the appeal, and that no miscarriage of justice has thereby been caused.

(3) The Judge shall endorse upon the record of the hearing of the appeal the decision of the Grand Court including any order as to costs and the Clerk of the Court shall, on the application of any party entitled, certify the costs payable, in respect of the proceedings to which the appeal relates and issue all necessary warrants for the recovery of the whole by distress or otherwise, and the same may be enforced in the same manner as any judgment of the court in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction.

Costs in appeals

8. The costs payable by any party at any stage of, or in respect of any matter arising out of, any issue in relation to which an appeal is made, shall be in the discretion of the Grand Court.

Passed by the Legislative Assembly the 6th day of May, 2016.

Juliana Y. O'Connor-Connolly

Speaker.

Zena Merren-Chin

Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.
