

CAYMAN ISLANDS

Supplement No. 2 published with Gazette No. 21 of 1978.

THE AIRPORTS
(STRAYING ANIMALS)
REGULATIONS, 1978

CAYMAN ISLANDS

THE AIRPORTS REGULATION LAW (Revised)

THE AIRPORTS (STRAYING ANIMALS) REGULATIONS, 1978

In exercise of the powers conferred upon the Governor in Council by section 3(b) of the above Law the following Regulations are hereby made.

- Citation. 1. These Regulations may be cited as the Airports (Straying Animals) Regulations, 1978.
- Interpretation. 2. In these Regulations —
“animal” means any animal of sufficient size to constitute a possible hazard to any aircraft which might collide with it.
- Power to abate danger from animals on airports. 3. (1) Where the presence of an animal within the area of an airport might, in the opinion of an authorized officer, constitute a possible hazard to aircraft such officer may take any steps he considers desirable to abate such hazard including killing such animal or causing it to be killed by any ready and practical means available.
- (2) Upon the destruction of any animal under the powers conferred by this regulation, its carcass shall become the property of the Crown and may be disposed of as any authorized officer shall direct.
- (3) No person shall be entitled to any compensation for any loss or damage suffered by reason of anything done by an authorized officer under the powers conferred upon him by this regulation.

Made in Council this 3rd day of October, 1978.

JENNY MANDERSON
Clerk of the Executive Council.

