CAYMAN ISLANDS

Law 29 of 1979

I assent

T. RUSSELL

Governor

2nd October, 1979

A LAW for the Incorporation of the Anglican Church in the Cayman Islands and for the vesting of certain property in the body so incorporated.

WHEREAS the Church in the Cayman Islands for the past one hundred and fifty years has been and remains a part of the Church in Jamaica in the Province of the West Indies.

AND WHEREAS the inhabitants of these islands have been associated and worship together as the Anglican Church for the teaching and spread of the Gospel of Christ amongst the people of the Cayman Islands.

AND WHEREAS property both real and personal is held by the Incorporated Lay Body of the Church in Jamaica in the Province of the West Indies for the benefit or on behalf of the Church in the Cayman Islands.

AND WHEREAS it is expedient and desirable that there should be a corporate body in which may be vested the real and personal property already and hereafter to be acquired in the Cayman Islands and that such corporate body shall have the right to acquire, hold, deal with, mortgage and dispose of real and personal property for the purpose of the Church in these islands.

ENACTED by the Legislature of the Cayman Islands.

Short title. 1. This Law may be cited as the Anglican Church of the Cayman Islands Law, 1979.

Interpretation. 2. (1) In the construction of this Law, unless the context renders a different meaning necessary:—

“Church” means the Anglican Church in the Cayman Islands and includes its successors and any body for the time being exercising its functions;

“The Islands” means the Cayman Islands;

“The Corporation” means the body incorporated under section 4 of this Law;

“Church Committee” means the Church Committee as constituted under the Constitution and Canons of the Church in Jamaica in the Province of the West Indies and includes the Advisory Committee or Committees nominated by the superintending clergyman in accordance with the bye-laws made under the Constitution and Rules of the Jamaica Church Missionary Society;

“The Council” means the Council established under the provisions of section 3 of this Law.

(2) In this Law reference to “the Bishop”, “the Diocesan Secretary”, “the Chancellor”, “the Chairman of the Financial Board”, “the Suffragan Bishops” shall be constructed in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of the Church in Jamaica in the Province of the West Indies.

Constitution of the Council.

3. (1) There shall be a council consisting of not less than eight nor more than ten persons and shall include the Bishop, the Chancellor, the Chairman of the Financial Board, the Diocesan Secretary, the Suffragan Bishops, the Superintending Clergyman of the Church and two members of the Church resident in the Islands and selected in the manner most acceptable to the church.

(2) The Chairman of the Council shall be the Bishop or his nominee and a quorum of the Council shall be such number as the Council may fix from time to time.

(3) At meetings of the Council all matters shall be determined by simple majority vote and a decision or resolution of Council shall for the purposes of this Law be deemed to be the decision of a simple majority of the members of Council for the time being.

(4) In any case in which voting is equal, the Chairman shall, in addition to an original vote, have a casting vote.

(5) Subject to subsection (3) the Council shall have the power to regulate its own procedure.

Constitution of body corporate.

4. (1) There is hereby constituted for the purposes set forth in this Law a corporation, or body politic that shall consist of five persons being:—

(a) The Bishop and the Diocesan Secretary for the time being of the Diocese of Jamaica in the Province of the West Indies and the Reverend Weevil Gordon, or the person who for the time being is the senior superintending Clergyman of the Church, and

(b) Two members of the Church resident in the Islands, who shall be selected in the manner most acceptable to the Church; and the Council may appoint the successors of such members of the Corporation as vacancies occur, whether by death, resignation, removal or otherwise, as soon as may be found convenient after such vacancy occurs.

(2) No act or proceeding of the corporation shall be invalidated by reason of any vacancy in the body or in any of the offices in subsection (1) hereof, or by any defect in the appointment of any person to any such office.

(3) The fact that any vacancy exists at any time among the members of the corporation shall not affect the continuance of the corporation.

(4) The corporation shall have continuance forever and perpetual succession by the name the "Anglican Church in the Cayman Islands" and by that name may sue or be sued, plead and be impleaded in all Courts of Law or Equity.

(5) No deed or document purporting to be executed by the corporation shall be of any force or validity unless it is sealed with the seal of the corporation and signed by three members, two of whom shall be from among those in the category listed in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 4.

Removal of Members.

5. Save and except the Bishop and Diocesan Secretary, the Council may without cause and without giving any reason remove any of the other three members of the corporation and substitute another or others.

Non-liability of Members.

6. No member of the corporation shall be in any way personally responsible as such, or as a trustee of any of the lands, hereditaments, goods, chattels, or effects, for the time being vested in the corporation, for or in respect of any debt due, owing or accruing or hereafter to accrue, upon or in reference to such trust property nor for any involuntary loss suffered by the corporation or any member thereof, nor for money that shall come into his hands, nor for any injury which may be done by others to the said trust property or any part of parts thereof.

Common seal.

7. The corporation shall have a common seal which shall be of such design and pattern as the corporation may from time to time determine; and it shall be lawful for the corporation to break, alter or renew the said seal as they think proper.

Power to make rules.

8. In respect of all matters within the discretion, or subject to the election, decision, control or management of the corporation or the members thereof, it shall be lawful for the corporation in a meeting from time to time or any time or times, to make such rules, in harmony with the purposes of the corporation, as may be deemed desirable: —

- (a) for convening and adjourning the meetings of the corporation;
- (b) conducting its business;
- (c) carrying into effect the trusts and powers vested in or conferred upon the corporation;
- (d) recording its proceedings; and
- (e) generally for the carrying out of the objects of the corporation and to revoke, alter, add or modify all or any such rules and all rules in force shall be binding on the members of the corporation.

Temporary provisions.

9. Until and except as such rules shall be so made and be in force, and subject thereto: —

- (a) The Bishop, and in his absence, the Diocesan Secretary, shall be the convener with full powers as such; and in the absence of both, any member of the corporation may be the convener;
- (b) In all cases of a difference of opinion, the decision of a simple majority of the members for the time being of the corporation shall be deemed to be the decision or act of the corporation;
- (c) Members may, in cases where personal attendance can be dispensed with, express their opinion in writing addressed to the convener, and the opinion so expressed may be recorded as the vote of the absentee member.

Vesting of property.

SECOND SCHEDULE

Upon trust to permit and suffer the lands and hereditaments and the erections and buildings for the time being thereon, and their appurtenances, to be used and occupied only for such purposes connected with the Church or the educational or training work of the Church, as the Council shall from time to time direct, appoint, sanction or approve.

To permit and suffer the Church or place of religious worship, theological or educational training institutions, youth centres, schools, vestries, dwelling houses, offices, outrooms and other buildings and conveniences to be erected or built upon the said lands and hereditaments, or being built or erected to be enlarged, altered, improved, repaired, removed or pulled down, as and whenever the Council shall from time to time or at any time direct, sanction or approve.

To permit and suffer the Church or place of religious worship for the time being upon such lands and hereditaments to be used occupied and enjoyed, solely as a place for the religious worship and service of God, and the preaching of the Gospel and expounding and teaching the Holy Scriptures, according to the doctrines and usages professed and observed by the Church in Jamaica in the Province of the West Indies in full communion with the See of Canterbury and the Anglican Communion throughout the world.

To permit and suffer to officiate in each Church or place of worship on the said hands, and to have the conduct, direction and management, of the services, worship and teaching therein, such minister or ministers or other person or persons only as shall be thereunto for the time being duly appointed in accordance with the rules, regulations and practices of the Church in Jamaica in the Province of the West Indies or such person or persons as shall from time to time be thereunto requested by such minister so appointed as aforesaid.

To permit and suffer such dwelling house on the said lands and hereditaments as shall or may at any time be assigned as a residence for the minister in charge of or connected with any chapel or mission station of the said Church, and the sub-offices and appurtenances thereof including so much land as shall be attached thereto as incident to such residence, to be used, occupied, possessed and enjoyed by the minister for the time being in charge of, or appointed to or connected with, such church in accordance with such rules, regulations and practices as aforesaid, as a residence for himself and his family.

To permit and suffer such part of the said lands and hereditaments (if any) as may be set apart as a burial ground to be used by the minister and members of the said church:

Provided that the minister or persons already in charge of any church on the said lands, or any of them as the minister thereof shall be deemed to be so in charge by the appointment and with the approval of the church aforesaid, but that whenever any authority of the church having jurisdiction over any minister or person in charge of any such lands, shall, in the exercise of the powers committed to it, declare by any resolution or other official act any now existing or future appointment of any such minister or person in respect of the said lands, or any part thereof, or of any church at an end, such minister or person shall thereupon absolutely cease to be entitled to the privileges or benefits of the trusts aforesaid.

To permit every church built on such lands to be used under the authority of Council according to the doctrines and usages professed and observed by the Church in Jamaica in the Province of the West Indies in full communion with the See of Canterbury and the Anglican Communion throughout the world, and also to permit and suffer every such church building and the lands associated with the Church to be supervised and maintained by the Church Committee provided nevertheless that the Council shall have the final authority in all matters relating to such Churches.

To permit and suffer every school, training institution, youth centre and other facility built on such lands to be used under the authority of Council according to the doctrine and usages professed and observed by the body known as the Church in Jamaica in the Province of the West Indies in full communion with the See of Canterbury and the Anglican Communion throughout the world, and also to permit and suffer every such abovementioned institution to be superintended only by such Committee as shall be duly approved by Council, provided nevertheless that Council shall have the final authority in all matters referring to such institutions as mentioned above:

Provided also nevertheless that it shall be lawful for the corporation, in the manner and under the circumstances, and to the extent and subject to the limitations and with the sanction or approvals provided or required by the law incorporating them but not otherwise, to convey and assure, sell or exchange, or lease or otherwise deal with the said lands, hereditaments and premises, or any of them or any part thereof.
