THE BILLS OF LADING LAW
(Cap. 12)
(Revised)

Originally enacted

5th February, 1872.

Published in revised form this 25th day of April, 1977, by authority of the Law Revision Law (No. 19 of 1975).

Short title.

1. This Law may be cited as the Bills of Lading Law (Revised).

Transfer of rights and liabilities.

2. Every consignee of goods named in a bill of lading, and every endorsee of a bill of lading to whom property in the goods therein mentioned shall pass upon or by reason of such consignment or endorsement, shall have transferred to and vested in him all rights of suit and be subject to the same liabilities in respect of such goods as if the contract contained in the bill of lading had been made with himself.

Preservation of rights.

3. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect any right of stoppage in transitu, or any right to claim freight against the original shipper or owner, or any liability of the consignee or endorsee by reason or in consequence of his being such consignee or endorsee, or of his receipt of the goods by reason or in consequence of such consignment or endorsement.

Bill of lading conclusive evidence in certain cases.

4. Every bill of lading in the hands of a consignee or endorsee for valuable consideration representing goods to have been shipped on board a vessel shall be conclusive evidence of such shipment as against the master or other person signing the same, notwithstanding that such goods or some part thereof may not have been so shipped, unless such holder of the bill of lading shall have had actual notice at the time of receiving the same that the goods had not been in fact laden on board:

Provided that the master or other person so signing may exonerate himself in respect of such misrepresentation by showing that it was caused without any default on his part, and wholly by the fraud of the shipper, or of the holder, or some person under whom the holder claims.

Publication in revised form authorized by the Governor in Council this 12th day of April, 1977.

JENNY MANDERSON
Clerk of the Executive Council.
