I Assent

Stuart Jack

Governor.

30 June, 2006

A LAW TO AMEND THE BIRTHS AND DEATHS REGISTRATION LAW (1996 REVISION) IN ORDER TO PROVIDE FOR THE RE-REGISTRATION OF A CHILD WHOSE PARENTS ARE NOT MARRIED; FOR A CHANGE IN REGISTRATION AFTER THE PRODUCTION OF THE RESULTS OF A PARENTAGE TESTING PROCEDURE; AND FOR INCIDENTAL AND CONNECTED PURPOSES

ENACTED by the Legislature of the Islands.

1. This Law may be cited as the Births and Deaths Registration (Amendment) Law, 2006. Short title

2. The Births and Deaths Registration Law (1996 Revision), in this Law referred to as “the principal Law”, is amended by inserting the following new section after section 52-

“Re-registration
where parents not married

52A. (1) Where the birth of a child has been registered under this Law and the child’s father and mother were not married to each other at the time of the birth and no person has been registered as the father of the child, the Registrar-General shall, on payment of the appointed fee, re-register the birth so as to show a person as the child’s father-

- (a) at the joint request of the mother and that person and, if the child has attained the age of sixteen, together with the written consent of the child; or

Amendment of the Births and Deaths
Registration Law (1996 Revision)-re-registration
where parents are not married; change of
registration after
parentage testing
procedure

- (b) at the request of the mother on production of-
  - (i) a declaration made by the mother stating that that person is the father of the child; and
  - (ii) a declaration made by that person stating himself to be the father of the child; and
  - (iii) if the child has attained the age of sixteen, the written consent of the child to the registration of that person as his father; or
- (c) at the request of that person on production of-
  - (i) a declaration by that person stating himself to be the father of the child; and
  - (ii) a declaration made by the mother stating that that person is the father of the child; and
  - (iii) if the child has attained the age of sixteen, the written consent of the child to the registration of that person as his father; or
- (d) at the request of the mother or that person on production of-
  - (i) a court order declaring that person to be the father of the child; and
  - (ii) if the child has attained the age of sixteen, the written consent of the child to the registration of that person as his father, but no birth shall be re-registered under this section except in the manner provided in subsection (2).

(2) On the re-registration of a birth under this section-

- (a) the Registrar-General or an officer designated by him shall sign the register; and
- (b) in the case of a request under subsection (1)(a) or (b) or, in the case of a request under subsection (1) (d) made by the mother, the mother shall also sign the register; and

- (c) in the case of a request under subsection (1) (a), (c) or, in the case of a request under subsection (1) (d) made by the person requesting to be registered as the father of the child, that person shall also sign the register.

(3) Where both the mother and the person requesting to be registered as the father of the child are absent from the Islands and they have both given their written consent that another named person may sign on their behalf the register may be signed by the Registrar-General and that person who shall be over the age of eighteen.

(4) The written consent referred to in subsection (3) shall be notarised.

(5) Upon the re-registration of the birth of a person under this section the Registrar-General shall cause a note of the fact of such registration to be entered in the margin of the original entry of such birth, in the general register of births and in the margin of the entry in the registration form book deposited in accordance with section 48, and thereafter, subject to subsection (6), the Registrar-General shall only issue a certificate which shows the re-registration.

(6) After the re-registration of the birth of a person the Registrar-General may only issue a certified copy of his original registration pursuant to the order of a court.

(7) For the purposes of this section “request” means a request in writing.

Change of registration after
parentage testing
order

52B. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Registrar-General may, on production of such results of a parentage testing procedure as appear to him to be satisfactory to prove that a person is or is not the father of a child, and, on payment of the appointed fee, authorise at any time a change in registration of the birth of a child whose birth is already registered under this Law, and such change in registration shall be effected in such manner and at such place as the Registrar- General may determine.

(2) Where a person is registered as the father of a child pursuant to section 52A (d) (i) the Registrar may only change such registration where a court order subsequently stipulates that such person is not the father as previously decided by the court.

(3) Upon the change in registration of a birth in accordance with subsection (1) or (2) the Registrar-General shall cause a note of the fact of such change to be entered in the margin of the original entry of such birth, in the general register of births and in the margin of the entry in the registration form book deposited in accordance with section 48, and thereafter subject to subsection (4), the Registrar-General shall only issue a certificate which shows the change in registration.

(4) After the change in registration of the birth of a person the Registrar-General may only issue a certified copy of his original registration pursuant to the order of a court.”
