

CAYMAN ISLANDS

Supplement No. 2 published with Gazette No. 13 of 1977.

THE CUSTOMS (SPECIAL ATTENDANCE) REGULATIONS, 1977

THE CUSTOMS LAW
(Revised)

THE CUSTOMS (SPECIAL ATTENDANCE) REGULATIONS, 1977

In exercise of the powers conferred upon the Governor in Council by virtue of paragraph (a) of section 74 of the Customs Law (Revised), the following Regulations are hereby made.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Customs (Special Attendance) Regulations, 1977.

2. In these Regulations —

“Law” means the Customs Law (Revised);

“section” means a section of the Law;

“special attendance” means attendance by a Customs Officer under the provisions of paragraph (c) of section 7; and section 2 applies.

3. The powers of the Collector under sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (c) of section 7 may be exercised upon the following conditions —

- (a) in the case of the withdrawal of goods from a warehouse, the giving of not less than twenty-four hours' notice in writing to the Collector;
- (b) in the case of any customs activity at an airport the giving of not less than twenty-four hours' notice in writing to the Collector, but, in the case of non-commercial flights, an immediate request by telephone may be accepted;
- (c) in the case of any customs activity at a seaport, the giving of not less than four hours' notice in writing to the Collector;
- (d) in the case of customs attendance required with regard to goods in danger of perishing, an immediate request by telephone may be accepted.

and in all the above cases the giving of a deposit or bond to secure payment of the special attendance charge prescribed.

4. The powers of the Collector under sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (c) of section 7 may be exercised upon condition that payment of the special attendance charge as prescribed is secured by the giving of a deposit or bond.

5. The charge for special attendance shall be calculated from the time when such attendance is requested to be made available, regardless to whether or not the person requesting such attendance is then ready to make use of the service so requested.

6. Where special attendance is required upon more than one person, the amount chargeable for such attendance shall be apportioned between such persons upon the basis of these Regulations.

7. Special attendance arising from a telephone request made under paragraph (b) of Regulation 3 shall be deemed to be for a minimum period of two hours.

8. Special attendance is charged at the Customs Department's rate of overtime pay as authorised from time to time by the Government.

9. The Customs (Special Attendance) Regulations 1975 are hereby revoked.

Made in Council this 8th day of June, 1977.

JENNY MANDERSON
Clerk of the Executive Council.
