“SEVENTH SCHEDULE

section 6A(4)

THE CAYMAN ISLANDS HEALTH FOUNDATION AND THE CAYMAN ISLANDS HEALTH FOUNDATION COMMITTEE

1. (1) The Foundation shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal and, subject to this Law, shall have power to receive gifts and to buy, sell, hold, deal and otherwise acquire and dispose of land and other property of any kind and to enter into contracts and to do all things necessary or desirable for the purposes of its duties and functions.

(2) The Foundation may sue and be sued in its corporate name and it shall have exclusive right to use the name “the Cayman Islands Health Foundation”.

(3) The Foundation shall establish and maintain its head office and principal place of business within the Islands, and shall cause details thereof to be gazetted, and service of all documents on the Foundation shall be deemed to be effective if delivered at the head office.

2. (1) The seal of the Foundation shall be authenticated by the chairman and one other Committee member authorised to act in that behalf and shall be judicially noticed.

(2) The Committee may, by resolution, appoint a Committee member or any other agent either generally or in a particular case to execute or sign on behalf of the Foundation any agreement or other instrument not under seal in relation to any matter coming within the powers of the Foundation or the Committee.

3. (1) A person appointed as a Committee member shall hold office for a term of not more than three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(2) There shall be a chairman and a deputy chairman of the Committee, each of whom shall be appointed by the Governor in Cabinet from among the members of the Committee.

(3) The Committee shall appoint a person, not being a Committee member, to be the secretary of the Committee, who shall be present at all meetings and shall take minutes of the business transacted.

(4) The Committee shall be deemed to be properly constituted notwithstanding that there is a vacancy in the office of chairman, deputy chairman or any other Committee member.

(5) Committee members shall serve without remuneration and no Committee member shall directly or indirectly receive any profit from his position as such, but a Committee member may be paid reasonable expenses incurred by him in the performance of his duties, subject to the approval of the Foundation.

(6) The chairman of the Committee, in consultation with the Minister, shall terminate the appointment of any Committee member who -

- (a) resigns his office;
- (b) becomes of unsound mind or incapable of carrying out his duties;
- (c) becomes bankrupt or suspends payment to or compounds with his creditors;
- (d) is convicted in the Islands or elsewhere of any offence involving dishonesty or fraud;
- (e) is guilty of serious misconduct in relation to his duties; or
- (f) is absent without leave of the chairman of the Committee from three consecutive Committee meetings.

(7) Where the appointment of a Committee member is terminated under subparagraph (6), the Minister shall, as soon as practicable, notify the Governor in Cabinet of the termination and the reasons for the termination.

(8) If any Committee member dies, resigns or otherwise vacates his office before the expiry of the term for which he has been appointed, another person may be appointed by the Governor in Cabinet for the unexpired period of the term of office of the member in whose place he is appointed.

4. (1) The chairman of the Committee shall -

- (a) preside at all meetings of the Committee;
- (b) be an ex officio member of all committees of the Authority;
- (c) report to the Ministry responsible for health on the activities of the Foundation;
- (d) represent the Foundation at public or official functions, and

- (e) perform such other duties as may from time to time be determined by the Board.

(2) The deputy chairman of the Committee shall have all the powers and perform all the duties of the chairman in the absence or disability of the chairman, together with such other duties which may be assigned by the Board.

5. Section 9 of this Law shall, with all necessary changes, apply to meetings of the Committee as if -

- (a) references to the Board were references to the Committee;
- (b) references to the chairman of the Board were references to the chairman of the Committee;
- (c) references to the deputy chairman of the Board were references to the deputy chairman of the Committee; and
- (d) references to a director were references to a Committee member.”.

Savings and transitional provisions

13. (1) Every matter commenced under the former Law and partly dealt with by the Board when the new Law comes into force, is to be continued and dealt with in all respects as if the new Law had not come into force.

(2) Every matter commenced under the former Law and not wholly or partly dealt with by the Board when the new Law comes into force, is to be taken to be a matter commenced under the new Law and the provisions of the new Law are to apply accordingly.

(3) In this section -

“Board” means the Board of directors of the Authority established under section 8 of the former Law;

“former Law” means the principal Law in force immediately before the date of commencement of this Law; and

“new Law” means the principal Law as amended by this Law.

Passed by the Legislative Assembly the 19th day of March, 2009.
