84A. (1) There is established a Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal for the purpose of hearing appeals from decisions by the Chief Immigration Officer to refuse applications for asylum under this Part.

(2) The Tribunal shall consist of a Chairman, a Deputy Chairman and three other members, all of whom shall be appointed by, and hold office at the pleasure of the Cabinet.

(3) The Chairman shall be an attorney-at-law of at least seven years' call to the bar and the Deputy Chairman shall be an attorney-at-law of at least five years' call to the bar.

(4) The Cabinet shall appoint a Secretary to the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal to record and keep all minutes of the meetings, proceedings and decisions of the Tribunal and who shall have no right to vote.

(5) The Tribunal under this section shall meet on such occasions as, in the opinion of the Chairman, may be necessary or desirable to ensure an efficient and timely disposal of appeals.

(6) Any member of the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal who, without obtaining the prior written permission of the Chairman, is absent from more than two out of five consecutive meetings of that Tribunal shall cease to be a member of the Tribunal.

(7) In the temporary absence of the Chairman or in the event of the Chairman's inability to act, the Deputy Chairman shall act as chairman and exercise all the powers and functions of Chairman including the convening of meetings.

(8) At every meeting of the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal -

- (a) it shall reach its decisions by a majority of the votes of members present and voting;
- (b) the Chairman or presiding member shall have no original but only a casting vote; and
- (c) three members present shall form a quorum.

(9) Where a member of the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal has a personal or pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, in any matter which is to be determined by the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal, the member shall, if present at the meeting at which such matter is to be determined, as soon as possible after the commencement thereof, disclose the fact and leave the meeting.

(10) Subject to subsections (5) through (9), the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal shall have power to regulate its own procedure.

Application of sections 9 and 10 to Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal

84B. Sections 9 and 10 apply to the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal as if references in those sections to the Boards are references to the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal.

Procedure for appeals

84C. (1) Appeals under section 84(6) shall be by notice in writing addressed to the Secretary of the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal and the notice shall set out the decision against which the appeal is made and be accompanied by a copy of the original application which is the subject of the appeal and a copy of the Chief Immigration Officer's decision.

(2) Any correspondence to the appellant -

- (a) by post, shall be deemed to have been received no later than seven days from the date of dispatch; or
- (b) by electronic mail, shall be deemed to have been received no later than twenty-four hours after its transmission.

(3) The Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal shall notify the Chief Immigration Officer of the decision being appealed against within seven days of receipt of a notice of appeal.

(4) The Chief Immigration Officer shall deliver to the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal and the appellant the reasons for the decision being appealed against within a reasonable period of receipt of the notification under subsection (3).

(5) Upon receipt of the reasons, the appellant shall, within fourteen days, file the details of the grounds of appeal and serve a copy on the Chief Immigration Officer.

(6) Upon receipt of the appellant's detailed grounds of appeal, the Chief Immigration Officer may, within fourteen days, provide a written defence which shall be filed with the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal and served on the appellant.

(7) Upon receipt by the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal of the appellant's detailed grounds of appeal under subsection (5), the Tribunal may request additional information or further particulars from the appellant.

(8) The period within which -

- (a) the detailed grounds of appeal shall be filed under subsection (5); and
- (b) the Chief Immigration Officer may file a written defence under subsection (6), may be extended by the Chairman of the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal at the written request of the appellant or the Chief Immigration Officer for good reason shown.

(9) Upon receipt of the appellant's detailed grounds of appeal, including any additional information or further particulars requested from the appellant, and upon receipt of the Chief Immigration Officer's written defence, if any, the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal shall proceed with the hearing of the appeal.

(10) At the hearing of an appeal, the parties may appear before the Tribunal in person or be represented.

(11) There shall be no fee payable for an appeal under section 84.

(12) The Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal shall provide an appellant under this Part with a decision within seven days of the conclusion of the hearing of an appeal.

Appeals from decisions of the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal

84D. An appeal may be made to the Grand Court from a decision of the Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal on a point of law only.”.

15. The principal Law is amended in section 100 by inserting after the words “Immigration Appeals Tribunal” the words “; Refugee Protection Appeals Tribunal” each time that it appears.
