PART III-Caymanian Status

15. A person shall, for purposes of this Law, possess Caymanian status if-

General provisions regarding possession of Caymanian status

- (c) where any person claiming to be the father of the child is able to prove to the satisfaction of the Board that he is in fact the father, and undertakes responsibility for the maintenance of the child, the Board may make a declaration that, for the purposes of the application of this Law, that person shall be regarded as the father of the child, and the status and domicile of that person may then be taken into account in determining whether or not the child has acquired or, as the case may be, may acquire Caymanian status.

(6) Where a work permit is granted in respect of the gainful occupation of a person, the earlier gainful occupation of whom had been authorised by a previous work permit, or where a work permit is extended under subsection (5), such grant or extension shall not give rise to any right to, or any expectation of a right to, any further new work permit or extension of an existing work permit thereafter and the Board may, in any case, refuse an application for such further new work permit or extension without any right arising to the applicant concerned to appeal against such refusal either to the Governor or the Grand Court on the grounds that the previous grant or extension gave rise to any right or expectation of any right to a further work permit or the extension of an existing one.

(7) Where a person has been continuously authorised by a gainful occupation licence or a temporary gainful occupation licence granted under the repealed law, or a work permit, to be gainfully employed and by virtue of such authorisations he or any other person has been lawfully ordinarily resident in the Islands for any period which is one of the qualifications for application for a grant of Caymanian status or the right permanently to reside in the Islands, such residence shall not of itself give rise to any right or expectation of a right to such a grant.

(1) The Chief Immigration Officer and the Chairman of the Board (or a member appointed for the purpose by the Chairman) may jointly, on application in the prescribed form accompanied by such documentary or other evidence as may be prescribed by or on behalf of a visitor who desires to enter or remain in the Islands temporarily for the purposes of any gainful occupation, grant to such visitor a temporary work permit in the prescribed form upon the payment of the prescribed fee.

(2) A temporary work permit granted under subsection (1) shall be for such period not exceeding thirty days as the Chief Immigration Officer shall think fit but may, subject to subsection (4), be extended by the Chief Immigration Officer on application made to him in the prescribed form and manner and upon payment of the prescribed fee for such further period not exceeding thirty days as he shall see fit.

- (b) children and young persons under the school leaving age;
- (c) such other class or classes of persons as may be prescribed from time to time.

(3) Where a work permit authorises the gainful occupation of a person (in this subsection referred to as a “worker”) whilst he is in the service of any other person (in this subsection referred to as an “employer”) any fees payable under subsection (1) in respect of such work permit, or any prescribed security in respect of the entry of that worker into the Islands, shall be paid by the employer and it shall be an offence for an employer -

- (a) to seek or receive from any such worker any moneys or other compensation or benefit as reimbursement of, or contribution towards; or employ persons in contravention of this Part

Provided that where the holder of a work permit has, during the time when such work permit is in force, applied to the Board for a new work permit on the same terms and conditions as the existing work permit and for a period to commence immediately upon its expiration, or for an extension of the existing work permit then, if such application has-

- (a) been refused by the Board and an appeal has been made under section 12 to the Governor against such refusal, or
- (b) not yet been determined by the Board, the applicant shall not be guilty of an offence by engaging in such gainful occupation as he has heretofore been allowed to do, notwithstanding that the original work permit has expired, from the time when such original licence expires until the determination of the application or the appeal has been notified to him.

Provided that it is a good defence for a person charged with an offence under this subsection to prove that he had made reasonable enquiries to determine whether such employment was in contravention of this Part, and had no reasonable ground for believing, and did not in fact believe, that such employment was in contravention.

(3) For the purpose of this section, a person carrying on or employed in any profession, trade business or other avocation in or with relation to the Islands shall be deemed to do so for gain or reward until the contrary is proved.
