(1) A magistrate may order the forfeiture of cash which has been seized under section 25 if he is satisfied, on an application made while the cash is detained under that section, that the cash directly or indirectly represents a person's proceeds of drug trafficking or is intended by a person for use in drug trafficking.

(1) Notwithstanding and not in derogation of section 30, but subject to subsection (2), where a person is convicted of an offence against this Law, and the court by or before which he is convicted is satisfied that any monies or any other thing relate to or have been acquired due to or as a result of the offence, the court shall order that such monies or other thing be forfeited to the Crown or dealt with in such other manner as it may direct.

(2) The court shall not order any monies or other thing to be forfeited or dealt with under subsection (1) where a person claiming to be the owner of or otherwise interested therein applies to be heard by the court within fourteen days of conviction, unless an opportunity has been given to him to show cause why the order should not be made.

(3) Part V of the Police Law (1995 Revision) shall not apply to any monies or other thing which is the subject of an order under subsection (1). 1995 Revision

30. (3) For the purpose of this Law, a person who has at any time, whether before or after the twelfth day of September, 1988, received any payment or other reward in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another has benefited from drug trafficking.

(4) If the court determines that he has so benefited, it shall, before sentencing or otherwise dealing with him in respect of the offence, determine in accordance with section 34 the amount to be recovered by virtue of this section.

(5) The court shall then, in respect of that offence-

- (a) order him to pay that amount;
- (b) take account of the order before-
 - (i) imposing any fine on him;
 - (ii) making any order involving any payment by him; or
 - (iii) making any order under section 29; and
- (c) subject to paragraph (b), leave the order out of account in determining the appropriate sentence or other manner of dealing with the person against whom proceedings have been instituted for the drug trafficking offence.

(6) No law restricting the power of a court dealing with an offender in a particular way from dealing with him also in any other way shall by reason only of the making of an order under this section restrict the court from dealing with an offender in any way it considers appropriate in respect of a drug trafficking offence.

(7) Where the court makes a confiscation order, sections 24 and 25 of the Penal Code shall apply mutatis mutandis as if the amount mentioned in such order were a fine imposed by the court. Law 12 of 1975

(8) Where the court has directed that in default of payment of an amount ordered to be paid under a confiscation order the person against whom that order is made shall serve a term of imprisonment, and at the time such direction is made that person is liable to serve a term of imprisonment in respect of a drug trafficking offence, the term of imprisonment under section 25 of the Penal Code, as applied by subsection (7), to be served in default of payment of that amount shall not begin to run until after such term has been served:

Provided that, for the purposes of this subsection-

- (a) consecutive terms and terms which are wholly or partly concurrent shall be treated as a single term; and
- (b) there shall be disregarded any sentence suspended under section 23A of the Penal Code which has not taken effect at the time the warrant is issued.

Variation of confiscation order

31. (1) If, on an application by a person against whom proceedings have been instituted for a drug trafficking offence in respect of a confiscation order, the Grand Court is satisfied that the realisable property is inadequate for the payment of any amount remaining to be recovered under the order the court shall issue a certificate to that effect, giving its reasons.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) -

- (a) in the case of realisable property held by a person against whom an absolute order for bankruptcy has been made, the court shall take into account the extent to which any property held by him may be distributed among creditors; and
- (b) the court may disregard any inadequacy in the realisable property which appears to the court to be attributable wholly or partly to anything done by the person against whom the proceedings have been instituted for the purpose of preserving any property held by a person to whom he had directly or indirectly made a gift caught by this Law, as defined in section 45(1), from any risk of realisation under section 39.

(3) Where a certificate has been issued under subsection (1), the person against whom the proceedings have been instituted may apply to the Grand Court for the amount to be recovered under the order to be reduced.

(4) An application under subsection (1) or (3) may be made in chambers, and notice thereof shall be given to the prosecution.

Assessing the proceeds of drug trafficking

32. (1) The court may, for the purpose of determining whether the person against whom proceedings have been instituted for a drug trafficking offence has benefited from drug trafficking and, if he has, of assessing the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking, make the assumptions mentioned in subsection (2), except to the extent that any of them are shown to be incorrect in his case.

(2) Those assumptions are -

- (a) that any property appearing to the court-
 - (i) to have been held by him at any time since his conviction; or
 - (ii) to have been transferred to him at any time since the beginning of the period of six years ending when the proceedings were instituted against him whether before or after the twelfth day of September, 1988, was received by him, at the earliest time at which he appears to the court to have held it, as a payment or reward in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him;
- (b) that any expenditure of his since the beginning of that period was met out of payments received by him in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him; and
- (c) that, for the purpose of valuing any property received or assumed to have been received by him at any time as such a reward, he received the property free of any other interests in it.

(3) For the purpose of assessing the value of the proceeds of drug trafficking of a person against whom proceedings have been instituted for a drug trafficking offence in a case where a confiscation order has previously been made against him, the court shall leave out of account any of his proceeds of drug trafficking that are shown to the court to have been taken into account in determining the amount to be recovered under that order.

(4) For the purposes of this section -

- (a) any payments or other rewards received by a person at any time, whether before or after the twelfth day of September, 1988 in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another are his proceeds of drug trafficking; and
- (b) the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking is the aggregate of the values of the payments or other rewards.

33. (1) Where-

- (a) there is tendered to the court by the prosecution a statement as to any matters relevant to the determination whether a person against whom proceedings have been instituted for a drug trafficking offence has benefited from drug trafficking or to the assessment of the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking; and
- (b) that person accepts to any extent any allegation in the statement,

Statements relating to drug trafficking

the court may, for the purposes of that determination and assessment, treat his acceptance as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(2) Where -

- (a) a statement is tendered under paragraph (a) of subsection (1); and
- (b) the court is satisfied that a copy of that statement has been served on the person against whom the proceedings have been instituted, the court may require him to indicate to what extent he accepts each allegation in the statement and, so far as he does not accept any such allegation, to indicate any matters he proposes to rely on.

(3) If the person against whom the proceedings have been instituted fails in any respect to comply with a requirement under subsection (2), he may be treated for the purposes of this section as accepting every allegation in the statement apart from-

- (a) any allegation in respect of which he has complied with the requirement; and
- (b) any allegation that he has benefited from drug trafficking or that any payment or other reward was received by him in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another.

(4) Where-

- (a) there is tendered to the court by the person against whom the proceedings have been instituted a statement as to any matters relevant to determining the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made; and
- (b) the prosecution accepts to any extent any allegation in the statement, the court may, for the purposes of that determination treat the acceptance by the prosecution as conclusive of the matters to which it relates.

(5) An allegation may be accepted or a matter indicated for the purposes of this section either orally before the court or in writing.

(6) No acceptance by the person against whom the proceedings have been instituted under this section that any payment or other reward was received by him in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings for an offence.

Amount to be recovered
under confiscation order

34. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the amount to be recovered in the case of a person against whom proceedings have been instituted for a drug trafficking offence under the confiscation order shall be the amount the court assesses to be the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking.

(2) If the court is satisfied as to any matter relevant for determining the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made, whether by an acceptance under section 33 or otherwise, the court may issue a certificate giving its opinion as to the matters concerned and shall do so if satisfied as mentioned in subsection (3).

(3) If the court is satisfied that the amount that might be realised at the time the confiscation order is made is less than the amount it assesses to be the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking, the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order shall be the amount appearing to the court to be the amount that might be so realised.

(4) For the purposes of this section -

- (a) any payments or other rewards received by a person at any time, whether before or after the twelfth day of September, 1988, in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another are his proceeds of drug trafficking; and
- (b) the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking is the aggregate of the values of the payments or other rewards.

(5) For the purposes of this section, the amount that might be realised at the time a confiscation order is made is-

- (a) the total of the values at that time of all realisable property, less
- (b) where there are obligations having priority at that time, the total amounts payable in pursuance of such obligations, together with the total of the values at that time of all gifts caught by this Law, as defined in section 45.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5), an obligation has priority at any time if it is an obligation to pay-

- (a) an amount due in respect of a fine or order of a court, imposed or made on conviction of an offence, where the fine was imposed or order made before the confiscation order; or
- (b) any sum which, if the defendant has had an absolute order for bankruptcy made against him or was being wound up, would be among debts to be paid in priority to all other debts.

35. (1) This section has effect where by virtue of section 34(3) (insufficient realisable property) the amount which a person is ordered to pay by a Increase in realisable property confiscation order is less than the amount assessed to be the value of his proceeds of drug trafficking.

(2) If, on an application made in accordance with subsection (3), the Grand Court is satisfied that the amount that might be realised in the case of the person in question is greater than the amount taken into account in making the confiscation order (whether it was greater than was thought when the order was made or has subsequently increased) the court shall issue a certificate to that effect, giving the court's reasons.

(3) An application under subsection (2) may be made either by the Attorney-General or by a receiver appointed under section 38(5) in relation to the realisable property of the person in question.

(4) If a certificate has been issued under subsection (2), the Attorney-General may apply to the Grand Court for an increase in the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order.

(5) On an application under subsection (4) the court may -

- (a) substitute for the amount to be recovered under the confiscation order such amount (not exceeding the amount assessed as the value referred to in subsection (1)) as appears to the court to be appropriate having regard to the amount now shown to be realisable; and
- (b) increase any term of imprisonment that the court has directed to be served in default of payment of the amount ordered to be paid under the confiscation order.

Interest on sums unpaid under confiscation order

36. (1) If a sum required to be paid by a person under a confiscation order is not paid when it is required to be paid, that person is to pay interest on that sum for the period for which it remains unpaid and the amount of the interest is for the purposes of enforcement to be treated as part of the amount to be recovered from him under the confiscation order.

(2) The Grand Court may, on the application of the Attorney-General increase any term of imprisonment that the court has directed to be served in default of payment of the amount ordered to be paid.

(3) The rate of interest under subsection (1) is that for the time being applying to a civil judgement debt.

Cases in which restraint order may be made

37. (1) The powers conferred on the Grand Court by section 38(1) are exercisable where-

- (a) proceedings have been instituted in the Islands for a drug trafficking offence;
- (b) the proceedings have not been concluded; and
- (c) the court is satisfied that there is reasonable cause to believe that the person against whom the proceedings have been instituted has benefited from drug trafficking.

(2) Those powers are also exercisable where the court is satisfied that -

- (a) a complaint is to be made under section 13(1) of the Criminal Procedure Code that a person has or is suspected of having committed a drug trafficking offence; and
- (b) there is reasonable cause to believe that he has benefited from drug trafficking.

- (a) when a charge has been signed, under section 13(3) or (4) of the Criminal Procedure Code in respect of the offence; or
- (b) when a person is charged with the offence after being arrested without a warrant, under section 13(5) of the Criminal Procedure Code, and where the application of this subsection would result in there being more than one time for the institution of proceedings, they shall be taken to have been instituted at the earlier of those times.

- subject to such exceptions and conditions as may be specified by the court; and may require any person having possession of property in respect of which a receiver is appointed under this section to give possession of it to the receiver.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, dealing with property held by any person includes (without prejudice to the generality of the expression)-

(7) Where the Grand Court has made a restraint order, a constable may seize any realisable property for the purpose of preventing it being removed from the Islands.

(8) Property seized under subsection (7) shall be dealt with in accordance with the court's directions.

(9) For the purposes of this section, at any time when the powers conferred on the Grand Court by section 37 are exercisable before proceedings have been instituted, a reference to realisable property shall be construed as if, immediately before that time, proceedings had been instituted against the person referred to in paragraph (a) of section 37(2) for a drug trafficking offence.

(10) In this section, "restraint order" means an order made under subsection (1).

39. (1) Where-

as the Grand Court may direct after giving a reasonable opportunity for such person to make representations to the court.

(3) The receipt of any sum by the Clerk of the Court on account of an amount payable under a confiscation order shall reduce the amount so payable, but the sum shall be applied as follows -

- (a) if paid by a receiver under subsection (1), it shall first be applied in payment of his remuneration and expenses; and

- (b) subject to paragraph (a), it shall be applied in reimbursement of any sums paid by the prosecution under section 41(8), and the balance shall be treated as if it were a fine imposed by the court.

41. (1) Subsections (1) to (6) inclusive apply to the powers conferred on the Grand Court by sections 38, 39 and 40 or on a receiver appointed under section 38(5) or 39(2).

Exercise of powers by
Grand Court or receiver

(2) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the powers shall be exercised with a view to making available for satisfying the confiscation order or, as the case may be, any confiscation order that may be made in the case of the person against whom proceedings have been instituted for a drug trafficking offence the value for the time being of realisable property held by any person by the realisation of such property.

(3) In the case of realisable property held by a person to whom the person against whom the proceedings have been instituted has directly or indirectly made a gift caught by this Law, as defined in section 45(1), the powers shall be exercised with a view to realising no more than the value for the time being of that gift.

(4) The powers shall be exercised with a view to allowing any person, other than the person against whom the proceedings have been instituted or the recipient of any such gift, to retain or recover the value of any property held by him.

(5) An order may be made or other action taken in respect of a debt owed by the Crown.

(6) In exercising those powers, no account shall be taken of any obligations of the person against whom the proceedings have been instituted or of the recipient of any such gift which conflict with the obligation to satisfy the confiscation order.

(7) Where a receiver appointed under section 38(5) or 39(2) takes any action -

- (a) in relation to property which is not realisable property, being action which he would be entitled to take if it were such property; or
- (b) believing, and having reasonable grounds for believing, that he is entitled to take that action in relation to that property, he shall not be liable to any person in respect of any loss or damage resulting from his action, except insofar as the loss or damage is caused by his negligence.

(8) Any amount due in respect of the remuneration and expenses of a receiver appointed under section 38(5) or 39(2) shall, if no sum is available to be applied in payment of it under paragraph (a) of section 40(3), be paid by the prosecution or, in a case where proceedings for a drug trafficking offence are not instituted, by the person on whose application the receiver was appointed.

Compensation

42. (1) If proceedings are instituted against a person for a drug trafficking offence and either -

- (a) the proceedings do not result in his conviction for any drug trafficking offence; or
- (b) where he is convicted of the offence -
 - (i) the conviction concerned is quashed without a conviction for any other drug trafficking offence being substituted; or
 - (ii) Her Majesty has granted pardon in respect of the conviction, the Grand Court may, on an application by a person who held property which was realisable property, order compensation to be paid by the Government to the applicant.

(2) The Grand Court shall not order compensation to be paid in any case unless the court is satisfied -

- (a) that there has been some serious default on the part of a person concerned in the investigation or prosecution of the offence concerned and that, but for that default, the proceedings would not have been instituted or continued; and
- (b) that the applicant has suffered substantial loss in consequence of anything done in relation to the property by or in pursuance of an order of the Grand Court under section 38 or 39.

(3) The amount of compensation to be paid under this section shall be such as the Grand Court thinks just in all the circumstances of the case.

Order to make material available

43. (1) A constable may, for the purpose of an investigation into drug trafficking, apply to the Grand Court for an order under subsection (2) in relation to particular material or to material of a particular description.

(2) If on such an application the court is satisfied that the conditions in subsection (4) are fulfilled it may make an order that the person who appears to it to be in possession of the material to which the application relates shall -

- (a) produce it to a constable to take away; or

(b) give a constable access to it,
within such period as the order may specify.

(3) The period to be specified in an order under subsection (2) shall be seven days, unless it appears to the court that a longer or shorter period would be appropriate in the particular circumstances of the application.

(4) The conditions referred to in subsection (2) are that -

- (a) there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a specified person has carried on or has benefited from drug trafficking;
- (b) there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the material to which the application relates-
 - (i) is likely to be of substantial value (whether by itself or together with other material) to the investigation for the purpose of which the application is made; and
 - (ii) does not consist of or include items subject to legal privilege; and
- (c) there are reasonable grounds for believing that it is in the public interest, having regard to -
 - (i) the benefit likely to accrue to the investigation if the material is obtained; and
 - (ii) the circumstances under which the person in possession of the material holds it, that the material should be produced or that access to it should be given.

(5) Where the court makes an order under paragraph (b) of subsection (2) in relation to material on any premises it may, on the application of a constable, order any person who appears to it to be entitled to grant entry to the premises to allow a constable to enter the premises to obtain access to the material.

(6) The Chief Justice may make rules governing the procedure in relation to -

- (a) applications for the discharge and variation of orders under this section; and
- (b) proceedings relating to such orders.

(7) Where the material to which an application under this section relates consists of information contained in a computer -

- (a) an order under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) shall have effect as an order to produce the material in a form in which it can be taken away and in which it is visible and legible; and

(b) an order under paragraph (b) of subsection (2) shall have effect as an order to give access to the material in a form in which it is visible and legible.

(8) An order under subsection (2) -

(a) shall not confer any right to production of, or access to, items subject to legal privilege;

1995 Revision

(b) shall have effect notwithstanding any obligation as to secrecy or other restriction upon the disclosure of information whether imposed by the Confidential Relationships (Preservation) Law (1995 Revision), any other law or the common law; and

(c) may be made in relation to material in the possession of the Government.

(9) Where, in relation to an investigation into drug trafficking, an order under subsection (2) has been made or has been applied for and has not been refused or a warrant under section 44 has been issued, a person who, knowing or suspecting that the investigation is taking place, makes any disclosure which is likely to prejudice the investigation is guilty of an offence.

(10) In proceedings against a person for an offence under this section, it is a defence to prove -

(a) that he did not know or suspect that the disclosure was likely to prejudice the investigation; or

(b) that he had lawful authority or reasonable excuse for making the disclosure.

(11) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (9) is liable on conviction to a fine and to imprisonment for five years.

Authority for search

44. (1) A constable may, for the purpose of an investigation into drug trafficking, apply to the Grand Court for a warrant under this section in relation to specified premises.

(2) On such application the court may issue a warrant authorising a constable to enter and search the premises if it is satisfied that -

(a) an order made under section 43(2) in relation to material on the premises has not been complied with;

(b) the conditions in subsection (3) are fulfilled; or

(c) the conditions in subsection (4) are fulfilled.

(3) The conditions referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) are that-

- (a) there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a specified person has carried on or has benefited from drug trafficking;
 - (b) the conditions in paragraphs (b) and (c) of section 43(4) are fulfilled in relation to any material on the premises; and
 - (c) it would not be appropriate to make an order under that section in relation to the material because-
 - (i) it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to produce the material;
 - (ii) it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant access to the material or entitled to grant entry to the premises on which the material is situated; or
 - (iii) the investigation for the purposes of which the application is made might be seriously prejudiced unless a constable could secure immediate access to the material.
- (4) The conditions referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) are that -
- (a) there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a specific person has carried on or has benefited from drug trafficking;
 - (b) there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is on the premises material relating to the specified person or to drug trafficking which is likely to be of substantial value (whether by itself or together with other material) to the investigation for the purpose of which the application is made, but that the material cannot at the time of the application be particularised; and
 - (c)
 - (i) it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant entry to the premises;
 - (ii) entry to the premises will not be granted unless a warrant is produced; or
 - (iii) the investigation for the purpose of which the application is made might be seriously prejudiced unless a constable arriving at the premises could secure immediate entry to them.

(5) Where a constable has entered premises in the execution of a warrant issued under this section, he may seize and retain any material, other than items subject to legal privilege, which is likely to be of substantial value (whether by itself or together with other material) to the investigation for the purpose of which the warrant was issued.

45. (1) A gift, including a gift made before the twelfth day of September, 1988, is caught by this Law if -

- (a) it was made by a person against whom proceedings have been instituted for a drug trafficking offence at any time since the beginning of the period of six years ending when the proceedings were instituted; or

Other provisions re offences, gifts, property, etc.

- (b) it was made by him at any time and was a gift of property -
 - (i) received by him in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another; or
 - (ii) which in whole or in part directly or indirectly represented in his hands property received by him in that connection.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)-

- (a) the circumstances in which a person against whom proceedings have been instituted for a drug trafficking offence is to be treated as making a gift include those where he transfers property to another person directly or indirectly for a consideration the value of which is significantly less than the value of the consideration provided by him; and
- (b) in those circumstances, section 34(5) and subsections (1), (2), (4) and (5) hereof shall apply as if he had made a gift of such share in the property as bears to the whole property the same proportion as the difference between the value referred to in paragraph (a) bears to the value of the consideration provided by him.

(3) Subject to section 34(5) and subsections (1), (2), (4) and (5) hereof, for the purposes of this Law the value of property (other than cash) in relation to any person holding the property is-

- (a) where any other person holds an interest in the property, the market value of the first mentioned person's beneficial interest in the property, less the amount required to discharge any encumbrance on that interest; and
- (b) in any other case, its market value.

(4) Subject to subsection (2), a reference in this Law to the value at any time (referred to in subsection (5) as "the material time") of a gift caught by this Law, as defined in subsection (1), or of any payment or reward is a reference to-

- (a) the value of the gift, payment or reward to the recipient when he received it adjusted to take account of subsequent changes in the value of money; or
- (b) where subsection (5) applies, the value there mentioned, whichever is the greater.

(5) Subject to subsection (2), if at the material time the recipient holds -

- (a) the property which he received (not being cash); or

- (b) property which, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly represents in his hands the property which he received, the value referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (4) is the value to him at the material time of the property mentioned in paragraph (a) or, as the case may be, of the property mentioned in paragraph (b) so far as it so represents the property which he received.

(6) For the purposes of sections 30 to 45 inclusive-

- (a) a reference to an offence includes a reference to an offence committed before the twelfth day of September, 1988; but nothing in those sections imposes any duty or confers any power on any court in or in connection with proceedings against a person for a drug trafficking offence instituted before that date;
- (b) a reference to property applies to property whether it is situated in the Islands or elsewhere;
- (c) property is held by a person if he holds any interest in it;
- (d) property is transferred by one person to another if the first person transfers or grants to the other any interest in it; and
- (e) a reference to anything received in connection with drug trafficking includes a reference to anything received both in that connection and in some other connection.

46. (1) Subject to subsection (3), any person who after the ninth day of June, 1989, enters into or is otherwise concerned in any arrangement whereby-

Offence of assisting drug traffickers

- (a) the retention or control by or on behalf of any other person, in this section referred to as 'A', of proceeds of drug trafficking is facilitated (whether by concealment, removal from the jurisdiction, transfer to nominees or otherwise); or
- (b) 'A's proceeds of drug trafficking are used-
 - (i) to secure that funds are placed at 'A's disposal; or
 - (ii) for 'A's benefit to acquire property by way of investment, knowing or believing that 'A' is a person who carries on or has carried on drug trafficking or has at any time received any payment or other reward in connection with drug trafficking carried on by him or another, is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years and on conviction on indictment to a fine and to imprisonment for fourteen years.

(2) In this section, a reference to a person's proceeds of drug trafficking includes a reference to any property which in whole or in part directly or indirectly represented in his hands his proceeds of drug trafficking.

(3) Where a person discloses to a constable of the rank of Inspector or above a suspicion or belief that any funds or investments are derived from or used in connection with drug trafficking or any matter on which such a suspicion or belief is based-

- (a) the disclosure shall not be treated as a breach of any restriction upon the disclosure of information imposed by contract or by any law; and
- (b) if he does any act in contravention of subsection (1) and the disclosure relates to the arrangement concerned, he does not commit an offence under this section if the disclosure is made-
 - (i) before he does the act, being an act done with the consent of such constable; or
 - (ii) after he does the act, but was made on his initiative and as soon as it was a reasonable for him to have made it.

(4) In proceedings against a person for an offence under this section, it is a defence to prove on the balance of probabilities that-

- (a) he did not know or believe that the arrangement related to any person's proceeds of drug trafficking;
- (b) he did not know or believe that by the arrangement the retention or control by or on behalf of 'A' of any property was facilitated or, as the case may be, that by the arrangement any property was used as mentioned in subsection (1); or
- (c) he intended to disclose to a constable such a suspicion, belief or matter as is mentioned in subsection (3) in relation to the arrangement, but that there is reasonable excuse for his failure to make disclosure in accordance with paragraph (b) of that subsection.

Offence of concealing or transferring proceeds of drug trafficking

47. (1) A person is guilty of an offence if he-

- (a) conceals or disguises property which is, or in whole or in part directly or indirectly represents, his proceeds of drug trafficking; or
- (b) converts or transfers such property or removes it from the jurisdiction, to avoid prosecution for a drug trafficking offence or the making or enforcement in his case of a confiscation order.

(2) A person is guilty of an offence if knowing or having reasonable grounds to believe that property is, or in whole or in part directly or indirectly represents, another person's proceeds of drug trafficking, he-

- (a) conceals or disguises the property; or
- (b) converts or transfers the property or removes it from the jurisdiction, to assist a person to avoid prosecution for a drug trafficking offence or the making or enforcement of a confiscation order.

(3) A person is guilty of an offence if, knowing or having reasonable grounds to believe that property is, or in whole or in part directly or indirectly represents, another person's proceeds of drug trafficking, he acquires the property for no consideration or for an inadequate confiscation.

(4) In subsections (1)(a) and (2)(a) references to concealing or disguising property include references to concealing or disguising its nature, source, location, disposition, movement or ownership or a right with respect to it.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (3)-

- (a) consideration given for property is inadequate if its value is significantly less than the value of the property; and
- (b) the provision of services or goods for a person which are of assistance to him in drug trafficking is not consideration given for property.

(6) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable -

- (a) on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years; and
- (b) on conviction on indictment to a fine and to imprisonment for fourteen years.

48. (1) The Governor may by order-

- (a) direct in relation to a designated country that, subject to such modifications (which expression includes additions, alterations and omissions) as may be specified, this Law shall apply to external confiscation orders and to proceedings which have been or are to be instituted in the designated country and may result in an external confiscation order being made there;
- (b) make-
 - (i) such provision in connection with the taking of action in the designated country with a view to satisfying a confiscation order;
 - (ii) such provision as to evidence or proof of any matter for the purposes of this section and of section 49; and
 - (iii) such incidental, consequential and transitional provision,

Enforcement of external
confiscation orders

as appears to him to be expedient; and

- (c) without prejudice to the generality of this subsection, direct that, in such circumstances as may be specified, proceeds which arise out of action taken in the designated country with a view to satisfying a confiscation order shall be treated as reducing the amount payable under such order to such extent as may be specified.

(2) An order under this section may make different provisions for different cases or classes of case.

(3) The power to make an order under this section includes power to modify (which expression includes to add to, to alter and to make omissions from) this Law in such a way as to confer power on a person to exercise a discretion.

Registration of external
confiscation orders

49. (1) On an application made by or on behalf of the Government of a designated country, the Grand Court may register an external confiscation order made there if it is-

- (a) satisfied that at the time of registration the order is in force and not subject to appeal (which expression includes both any proceedings by way of discharging or setting aside a judgement or an application for a new trial or for a stay of execution);
- (b) satisfied, where the person against whom the order is made did not appear in the proceedings, that he received notice of the proceedings in sufficient time to enable him to defend them; and
- (c) of the opinion that enforcing the order in the Islands would not be contrary to the interests of justice.

(2) The Grand Court shall cancel the registration of an external confiscation order if it appears to it that the order has been satisfied by payment of the amount due under it, by the person against whom it was made serving imprisonment in default of payment, or by any other means.

Time within which proceedings may be brought

50. Notwithstanding the provisions of any law prescribing the time within which proceedings for an offence punishable on summary conviction may be commenced, any proceedings for an offence under this Law, may be commenced either within the time so prescribed or within three months from the date on which evidence sufficient in the opinion of the Attorney-General to justify a prosecution for the offence comes to his knowledge, whichever time is the longer, and for the purposes of this section a certificate purporting to be signed by the Attorney-General as to the date on which such evidence came to his knowledge shall be conclusive evidence thereof.

51. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a person is convicted of an offence under this Law and the powers of sentence for that offence are contained in section 17(2), (3) or (4), neither the Probation of Offenders Law nor sections 30 and 31 of the Penal Code nor section 71 of the Criminal Procedure Code shall apply for the purpose of avoiding or mitigating that sentence.

Probation of Offenders
Law, etc. not applicable

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where a person is convicted of an offence under paragraphs (k) or (l) of section 4(1) in relation to a controlled drug that-

- (a) is not a hard drug, is less than one pound in weight, and the power of sentence for that offence is contained in section 17(2); or
- (b) is less than two ounces in weight and the power of sentence for that offence is contained in section 17(4).

52. (1) A community service order made under section 17(6) shall require the person convicted to perform unpaid work in accordance with the subsequent provisions of this Law for such number of hours (being in the aggregate not less than forty nor more than two hundred and forty) as may be specified in the order.

Community service order
in respect of convicted
person

(2) A court shall not make a community service order in respect of any offender unless the offender consents and the court -

- (a) has been notified by the Governor that arrangements exist for persons to perform work under such orders; and
- (b) is satisfied -
 - (i) after considering a report by a probation officer about the offender and his circumstances and, if the court thinks it necessary, hearing a probation officer, that the offender is a suitable person to perform work under such an order; and
 - (ii) that provision can be made under the arrangements for him to do so.

(3) Where a court makes community service orders in respect of two or more offences of which the offender has been convicted by or before the court, the court may direct that the hours of work specified in any of those orders shall be concurrent with or additional to those specified in any other of those orders.

(4) A community service order shall specify the area in which the offender resides or will reside; and the functions conferred by the subsequent provisions of this Law on the relevant officer shall be discharged by a probation officer appointed for or assigned to the area.

(5) Before making a community service order the court shall explain to the offender in ordinary language -

- (a) the purpose and effect of the order (and in particular the requirements of the order as specified in section 53);
- (b) the consequences which may follow under section 54 if he fails to comply with any of those requirements; and
- (c) that the court has under section 55 the power to review the order on the application either of the offender or of a probation officer.

(6) The court by which a community service order is made shall forthwith give copies of the order to the offender and to the relevant officer.

(7) The Governor may, by notice, direct that subsection (1) shall be amended by substituting, for the maximum number of hours specified, such number of hours as may be specified in the notice.

(8) Nothing in subsection (1) shall be construed as preventing a court which makes a community service order in respect of any offence from making an order for costs against, or imposing any disqualification on, the offender.

Obligations of person
subject to community service order

53. (1) An offender in respect of whom a community service order is in force shall-

- (a) report to the relevant officer and subsequently from time to time notify him of any change of address; and
- (b) perform, for the number of hours specified in the order, such work at such times as he may be instructed by the relevant officer.

(2) Subject to section 55, the work required to be performed under a community service order shall be performed during the period of twelve months beginning with the date of the order.

(3) The instructions given by the relevant officer under this section shall, so far as practicable, be such as to avoid any conflict with the offender's religious beliefs and any interference with the times, if any, at which he normally works or attends a school or other educational establishment.

Breach of requirements
of community service order

54. (1) If, at any time while a community service order is in force in respect of an offender, it appears on information to a Justice of the Peace that the offender has failed to comply with any of the requirements of section 53 (including any failure satisfactorily to perform the work which he has been instructed to do), the Justice may issue a summons requiring the offender to appear at the place and time specified therein, or may, if the information is in writing and on oath, issue a warrant for his arrest.

(2) Any summons or warrant issued under this section shall direct the offender to appear or be brought before the magistrates court.

(3) If it is proved to the satisfaction of the magistrates court before which an offender appears or is brought that he has failed without reasonable excuse to comply with any of the requirements of section 53 the court may, without prejudice to the continuance of the order, impose on him a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or may revoke the order and impose in substitution therefor, in addition to any other sentence either by way of fine or imprisonment, or both, which may have already been imposed at the time of the original conviction a further fine or a further term of imprisonment, or both, but not so as to cause the further fine when added to the fine originally imposed, if any, or the further term of imprisonment when added to the term of imprisonment originally imposed, if any, to exceed the fine or term of imprisonment laid down in the section of the Law in respect of contravention of which the person convicted was originally sentenced and where no fine or imprisonment has been imposed at the time of the original conviction then the court before whom the offender is brought under the provisions of this subsection may impose such fine or imprisonment or both as could have been imposed by the court by whom the offender was originally convicted, and in all such cases imprisonment shall be imprisonment with hard labour.

55. Where a community service order is in force in respect of any offender and, on the application of the offender or the relevant officer, it appears to the court that it would be in the interests of justice to do so having regard to circumstances which have arisen since the order was made, the court may extend, in relation to the order, the period of twelve months specified in section 53(2).

Amendment of
community service order

56. (1) An attendance order made under section 17(7) shall require the person convicted to attend during such period not exceeding twelve months as may be specified in the order at a training centre or such other place as may be specified in the said order.

Attendance order in respect of convicted
person

(2) A court shall not make an attendance order in respect of any offender unless -

- (a) it has been notified by the Governor that a training centre or other suitable place exists in respect of which the order may be made; and
- (b) it is satisfied that arrangements can be made for his attendance at such place.

(3) An attendance order made shall require the person in respect of whom it is made -

- (a) to attend at the place specified in such order on not more than sixty days in accordance with such instructions as shall be given by the probation officer who has been appointed by the order to be responsible for his supervision; and
- (b) shall further require the person in respect of whom the order is made while attending there to comply with such instructions as are given by or under the authority of the person in charge of the place.

(4) For the purposes of this section references to attendance at a training centre shall include references to attendance elsewhere for the purpose of receiving training in accordance with instructions given by or under the authority of the person in charge of the centre.

(5) Where a court makes attendance orders in respect of two or more offences of which the offender has been convicted by or before the court, the court may direct that the orders shall be concurrent with or additional to those specified in any other of those orders.

(6) The court by which an attendance order is made shall forthwith give copies of the order to the offender and to the relevant officer.

(7) The Governor may, by notice, direct that subsection (1) or (3) shall be amended by substituting, for the maximum number of months or days specified, such number of months or days as may be specified in the notice.

(8) Nothing in subsection (1) shall be construed as preventing a court which makes an attendance order in respect of any offence from making an order for costs against, or imposing any disqualification on, the offender.

Breach of requirements
of attendance order

57. (1) If, at any time while an attendance order is in force in respect of an offender, it appears on information to a Justice of the Peace that the offender has failed to comply with any of the requirements of the attendance order, the Justice may issue a summons requiring the offender to appear at the place and time specified therein, or may, if the information is in writing and on oath, issue a warrant for his arrest.

(2) Any summons or warrant issued under this section shall direct the offender to appear or be brought before the magistrates court.

(3) If it is proved to the satisfaction of the magistrates court before which an offender appears or is brought that he has failed without reasonable excuse to comply with any of the requirements of the attendance order, the court may,

without prejudice to the continuance of the order, impose on him a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or may revoke the order and impose in substitution therefor, in addition to any other sentence either by way of fine or imprisonment, or both, which may have already been imposed at the time of the original conviction a further fine or a further term of imprisonment, or both but not so as to cause the further fine when added to the fine originally imposed, if any, to exceed the fine or term of imprisonment laid down in the section of the Law in respect of contravention of which the person convicted was originally sentenced, and where no fine or imprisonment has been imposed at the time of the original conviction then the court before whom the offender is brought under the provisions of this subsection may impose such fine or imprisonment or both as could have been imposed by the court by whom the offender was originally convicted, and in all such cases imprisonment shall be imprisonment with hard labour.

58. Where an attendance order is in force in respect of any offender and, on the application of the offender or the relevant officer, it appears to the court that it would be in the interests of justice to do so having regard to the circumstances which have arisen since the order was made, the court may extend, in relation to the order, the period of twelve months specified in section 23(1).

Amendment of
attendance order

59. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section of this Law, where a person is charged with any offence of selling, dealing in, distributing, supplying, dispensing, storing, issuing a prescription for, administering, importing, exporting, producing or attempting, contrary to section 4(1) which relates to a controlled drug that is a hard drug, then such offence shall be deemed, for the purpose of determining the mode of trial, a category B offence in accordance with section 5 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

Procedure in respect of certain offences

(2) For the removal of doubt it is hereby declared that where a person is convicted of an offence on trial upon indictment pursuant to subsection (1) the Grand Court may impose a term of imprisonment and a fine in accordance with the provisions of section 17(4) or Part B of the Second Schedule.

60. For the avoidance of doubt, it is hereby declared that nothing in this Law derogates from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Law, 1985.
