

CAYMAN ISLANDS

Supplement No. 1 printed with Gazette No. 21 of 1985

(3) Where a resolution ceases to have statutory effect by virtue of subsection (2) or where the period of one month terminates before a law comes into operation providing for the charge of customs duty or, as the case may be, varying or abolishing any rate of any customs duty, any money paid in pursuance of the resolution shall be repaid or made good, and any deduction made in pursuance of the resolution shall be deemed for all purposes to be an unauthorised deduction.

(4) Where the rate of any customs duty is altered by any resolution under subsection (1), and any bill which has been introduced into the Legislative Assembly to give effect to that resolution provides for an alteration of the rate of drawback to be allowed in respect of that rate of customs duty then, so long as the resolution continues to have statutory effect, drawback under section 44 of the Customs Law (Second Revision) shall be allowed in accordance with the rate provided in the bill, subject to any necessary adjustment in case the rate of drawback as enacted by the Legislative Assembly differs from the rate provided in the bill.

Passed the Legislative Assembly this 10th day of September, 1985.

President.

E. GAY JACKSON
Clerk of the Legislative Assembly.

THE PROVISIONAL COLLECTION OF CUSTOMS DUTIES LAW, 1985 (LAW 21 OF 1985)

CAYMAN ISLANDS

Law 21 of 1985

I Assent

PETER LLOYD
Governor

30th September 1985

A LAW TO MAKE PROVISION FOR THE PROVISIONAL
COLLECTION OF CUSTOMS DUTIES, AND MATTERS
CONNECTED THEREWITH

ENACTED by the Legislature of the Cayman Islands.

1. This Law may be cited as the Provisional Collection of Customs Duties Law, 1985.

2. (1) Where the Legislative Assembly passes a resolution which -

- (a) provides for a charge of customs duty upon a new item of goods, or for the variation (with or without modification) or for the abolition of any rate of customs duty, under the Customs Law (Second Revision); and
- (b) contains a declaration that it is expedient in the public interest that the resolution should have statutory effect under the provisions of this law, the resolution, subject to subsection (2), shall for a period expiring at the end of one month after the date on which it is passed, have statutory effect as if contained in a law.

(2) A resolution shall cease to have statutory effect under this section if the provisions giving effect to it are rejected during the passage of the bill containing them through the Legislative Assembly or if all bills relating to the measures in the resolution have not had their first reading within the next ten days on which the Legislative Assembly sits after the vote on the resolution.
