THE TRADE AND BUSINESS LICENSING DIRECTIONS, 2007

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 15 of the Trade and Business Licensing Law (2007 Revision), the Governor in Cabinet, after consultation with the Trade and Business Licensing Board, gives the following general directions as to the policy to be followed by the Board in the performance of its functions under that Law -

1. These Directions may be cited as the Trade and Business Licensing Directions, 2007. Citation

2. (1) A licence in respect of a business to provide janitorial, house-keeping or related services shall be granted or renewed, as the case may be, subject to the condition that the licensee is restricted to the cleaning of private homes and commercial buildings not including hotels, condominiums or any tourist accommodation. Restrictions re the provision of janitorial services

(2) The restriction referred to in paragraph (1) does not preclude the cleaning of windows, carpets, and upholstery at any location, including hotels, condominiums and any tourist accommodation in the Islands.

Made in Cabinet the 20th day of November, 2007.

Carmena Watler

Clerk of the Cabinet.
