WATER (PRODUCTION AND SUPPLY) LAW

(1996 Revision)

1. (1) This Law may be cited as the Water (Production and Supply) Law (1996 Revision). Short title and application

(2) This Law shall apply to the whole of the Islands or to such part or parts thereof as the Governor may, from time to time, declare by notice published in the Gazette.

2. In this Law- Definitions

“concession” includes any instrument whereby the Governor grants a right or privilege enabling a person, exclusively or subject to restriction, to produce and supply water in the Islands upon and subject to such terms and conditions as may be expressed or implied in such instrument or provided for under this or any other law;

“concessionaire” means a person to whom a right or privilege has been granted under a concession;

“domestic use” has the meaning assigned to that expression by section 2(1) of the Water Authority Law (1996 Revision), but does not include condominiums, apartments, or other residential units which share common services; 1996 Revision

“Governor” means the Governor in Council;

“produce” means to take from any reservoir, pond, well, cistern or other place and includes to recover or process water by distillation, purification, desalination or otherwise;

“water” includes non-potable water;

“water system” means the operative method whereby the production and supply of water is effected; and

“works” include wells, desalination plants, pipes, tanks, ponds, reservoirs, pumping stations, valves, hydrants, buildings, machinery, metering devices and other apparatus used in a water system.

Water (Production and Supply) Law (1996 Revision)

- Governor may grant concessions
3. (1) The Governor may grant concessions under this Law subject to such terms and conditions as to geographical area, means of production, volume, pressure, hygiene, charges, fees, inspection, number and location of outlets, reporting and accounting, power of acquisition by the Government, cancellation, suspension or such other matters as may be prescribed or mutually agreed between the Governor and the concessionaire.
- 1996 Revision
- (2) Before the Governor may grant any concession under subsection (1) he shall seek the advice of the Water Authority which shall advise him pursuant to section 6(c) of the Water Authority Law (1996 Revision).
- Application of certain other laws
- 1996 Revision
4. A concessionaire under this Law is deemed-
- (a) if a company, to be the holder of a franchise for the purpose of section 4 (1) (d) of the Local Companies (Control) Law (1996 Revision); or
 - (b) if an individual, to be employed by the Government of the Islands for the purpose of section 26(1)(a)(i) of the Immigration Law, 1992.
- Law 13 of 1992
- Protection of concessionaires from distress, etc.
5. Where a concessionaire places or installs works upon any private premises, such works are not subject to distress or any other landlord's remedy for non-payment of any rent nor are they liable to be taken in execution by any process of any court against any person other than the concessionaire.
- Supply of water
6. A concessionaire may, within the terms of his concession, supply water to any person:
- Provided that a concessionaire may, subject to the terms of his concession but notwithstanding any other agreement to the contrary, without incurring any liability for so doing other than to make a proportionate abatement in any agreed charge or rate, reduce the volume, or pressure of supply if, by reason of any unusual or unforeseen circumstances, he is of the opinion that maintenance of a full supply would be onerous.
- Supply of water to defaulters may be cut off while default continues
7. Where any person otherwise entitled to be supplied with water under a concession makes default in any payment due under such agreement or takes water excessively beyond his reasonable needs, the concessionaire may cut off and discontinue such supply using any reasonable means in that behalf until the amount due together with any incidental expenses incurred to the concessionaire have been paid, whereupon the supply shall be restored without unnecessary delay.

8. A concessionaire may, from time to time, appoint inspectors whose identity shall be made known to the Governor and who shall wear or carry such means of identification, if any, as may be prescribed, and such inspectors may, at all reasonable times, enter any supplied premises with necessary workmen, machinery and equipment to examine, remove, repair or adjust any works of the concessionaire and the concessionaire shall restore or give compensation for any damage caused by his own default or that of his inspectors or workmen in so doing.

Inspection, etc., of supplied premises

9. For the purpose of initiating or maintaining a water supply to the public the concessionaire may, on giving to occupiers seven days' notice in that behalf, or without such notice in any case of emergency, enter upon any enclosed or other premises other than buildings for the purpose of installing, improving or maintaining any works:

Concessionaire's powers of entry, etc.

Provided that -

- (a) a concessionaire shall not thereby acquire any right over any land other than for the purpose of supply in accordance with its concession and in terms of compensation to occupiers for any consequential nuisance or damage;
- (b) in case of serious risk of flooding or for the provision of a water supply for the purpose of fire fighting, a concessionaire may enter without notice upon any building accompanied, if practicable, by a constable; and
- (c) where a nuisance or damage is caused to any person by reason of any action of a concessionaire (including any of his servants) taken under this section and compensation cannot be agreed, the question of the quantum of compensation shall be referred to arbitration under the Arbitration Law (1996 Revision).

1996 Revision

10. Where any private installation or works interferes or appears calculated to interfere with a water system, a summary court may, upon the application of the concessionaire in that behalf and after hearing any party who would or might thereby be affected, make an order empowering the concessionaire to make such alteration or adjustment of such private installation as to the court appears just upon such terms as to compensation, if any, as appears just, and in hearing and determining such application the court shall, as nearly as may be, follow its usual procedure in civil cases.

Interference by private installations

11. The Governor may make Regulations for carrying this Law into effect and, without prejudice to the generality of this provision, for prescribing-

Regulations

- (a) the health and safety standards and precautions in relation to the production and supply of water;
- (b) the rates of compensation for damage to members of the public arising from the production or supplying of water;
- (c) for the establishment, management and payment of compensation for wayleaves;
- (d) for applications for, and granting of, concessions;
- (e) for the establishment of a Compensation Assessment Tribunal for the assessment of compensation claims arising from the production and supplying of water;
- (f) the terms and conditions upon and subject to which a concession shall, or may be granted;
- (g) provision for appeals against the decisions of the Compensation Assessment Tribunal;
- (h) rules to enable the Attorney-General on behalf of the public to claim damages for pollution or other injury to public amenities arising from the production and supplying of water;
- (i) penalties for contravention of such regulations; and
- (j) any matters required by this Law to be prescribed.

Penalties
