A LAW to amend the Immigration Restriction (British Subjects)
Law, 1961.

[]

ENACTED by the Legislature of the Cayman Islands.

1—This Law may be cited as the Immigration Restriction (British Subjects) (Amendment) Law, 1964, and shall be read and construed as one with the Immigration Restriction (British Subjects) Law, 1961, (hereinafter referred to as the principal Law) and shall come into force on a date to be appointed by the Administrator and published by Government Notice.

Short title,
construction
and commencement.
Law 15 of 1961.

2—Section 5 of the principal Law is hereby amended by deleting sub-section (2) and by substituting a new section therefor, and by the addition of sub-section (3) as follows -

Amendment of Section 5 of Principal Law.

“ (2) A British subject having entered the Cayman Islands without a passport within a period of five years prior to the commencement of this Law, shall be deemed to be a prohibited immigrant unless and until he explains why he has no passport, and establishes his identity and nationality to the satisfaction of the immigration officer.

(3) The Administrator in Executive Council may by Regulations exempt any class of British subjects entering the Cayman Islands from the provisions of this section, either unconditionally, or subject to such conditions as may by such regulations be imposed."

Amendment of Section 8 of principal Law.

3—Section 8 subsections (5) and (7) of the principal Law are hereby amended as follows -

" (5) by inserting after the word "subject" in line one the words "having entered or",

(7) by inserting after the word "section" in line two the words "after having entered or".

Amendment of
