LAW 21 of 1967

I assent,

(L.S.)

J.A. Cumber
Administrator

19th October, 1967

A Law to amend the Judicature (Appellate Jurisdiction) Law.

ENACTED by the Legislature of the Cayman Islands.

1. This Law may be cited as the Judicature (Appellate Jurisdiction) (Amendment) Law, 1967 and shall be read and construed as one with the Judicature (Appellate Jurisdiction) Law, hereinafter referred to as the principal Law.

Short title and construction.

Cap. 73

2. Section 30 of the principal Law is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:-

Repeal and replacement of section 30 of principal Law.

“Rules of Court. 30 (1) There is hereby established a Committee to be known as the Rules Committee of the Court which shall consist of the President and any two judges of the Court.

(2) The President shall be Chairman of the Committee the quorum of which shall be two.

(3) It shall be the function of the Committee to make Rules of Court for the purpose of regulating appeals to the Court of Appeal under any law of the Islands.

(4) A reference in any Law or enactment made after the commencement of the Judicature (Appellate Jurisdiction) (Amendment) Law, 1967 to rules of Court in relation to the Court of Appeal shall be construed in the absence of a contrary intention as a reference to rules of Court made under this section or having effect as if so made.

(5) Until rules of Court are made under this section the Court of Appeal Rules 1962 of Jamaica shall mutatis mutandis continue in force, in so far as they may be applicable, and shall have effect as if they had been made under this section.

(6) Rules of Court may make provisions for all or any of the following matters -

- (a) for regulating and prescribing the procedure (including the method of pleading) and the practice to be followed in the Court of Appeal in all causes and matters whatsoever in or with respect to which the court has for the time being jurisdiction (including the procedure and practice to be followed in the offices of the Court), and any matters incidental to or relating to any such procedure or practice, including (but without to the generality of the foregoing provision) the manner in which, and the time within which, any applications, appeals or references which under any Law or enactment may or are to be made to the Court or Judge thereof, shall be made;

- (b) for providing that any interlocutory application in relation to any matter, or to any appeal or proposed appeal, may be heard and disposed of by a single judge;
- (c) for regulating any matters relating to the costs of proceedings in the Court of Appeal."

Passed the Assembly this 22nd day of Sept. 1967.
