

THE LAWS
OF
THE CAYMAN ISLANDS

IN FORCE ON
THE 31st DAY OF DECEMBER, 1963

REVISED EDITION

CHAPTER 110

THE NOTARIES PUBLIC LAW

To be obtained from the Clerk of the Courts, Courts Office, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands, West Indies.

PRINTED BY
EYRE AND SPOTTISWOODE LIMITED, HER MAJESTY'S PRINTERS,
2 SERJEANTS' INN, LONDON E.C.4

(Appointed by the Government of the Cayman Islands, the Government Printers for the purposes of this Edition of Laws within the meaning of the Evidence (Colonial Statutes) Act 1907.)

PRICE 1/-

CHAPTER 110

Law
1 of 1899.

THE NOTARIES PUBLIC LAW

[24th March, 1899]

1. This Law may be cited as the Notaries Public Law. Short title.
2. The Administrator may, by warrant under his hand and seal, from time to time, commission and appoint as many fit and proper persons as he may think desirable, to be Notaries Public for the Cayman Islands, to discharge the duties assigned to such office by the laws of Great Britain and of the Islands, or by the practice of commerce. Power to appoint Notaries
Public.
3. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each Notary Public shall under a dedimus to be issued by the Administrator, be sworn well, truthfully, and faithfully to discharge such duties, and shall pay a sum of one pound to the Treasurer in lieu of stamp duty on his commission. Swearing in of Notary
Public.
4. It shall be a misdemeanour, punishable by fine or imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding three years or by both fine and imprisonment as aforesaid, for any Notary Public or other person falsely to certify, or to propound any statement, document or thing, or fraudulently, with intent to deceive, to cancel, withhold or pervert any fact, document or thing pertinent to the subject of protest or other notarial act. Penalties for offences by Notary
Public.
5. The Notaries Public for the Islands shall be deemed to be officers of the Grand Court, and liable to the summary jurisdiction thereof; and on the certificate from the Court of misconduct in office, the Administrator shall discharge the offending officer from his office. Notaries
Public to be officers of the Grand Court.
6. The fees of a Notary Public shall be, exclusive of stamps, as follows— Fees for Notary
Public.
For the subscribing and sealing a protest, ten shillings and sixpence.

For drawing and preparing same, if so required, two shillings and sixpence per legal sheet of seventy-two words.

For copies of documents therein one shilling and threepence per legal sheet.