affairs of the Exchange and of any Exchange member in connection with the business of the Exchange; and

- (h) the arbitration of disputes arising out of or in connection with the establishment and operation of any one or more securities markets.

(2) In consultation with the Authority and subject to section 12, the Exchange may make such other rules as it considers necessary or desirable for the proper and efficient regulation, management and control of the Exchange and any one or more securities markets established and operated by the Exchange.

(3) The trading of securities through the facilities of the Exchange may commence only after all such rules as are required by subsection (1) have been made.

(4) The power conferred on the Exchange to make rules includes the power to amend or rescind a rule without consequent liability.

12. (1) No Article or rule or amendment to or rescission of the Articles or rules or any of them shall have effect unless first approved in writing by the Authority.

(2) Where it is proposed to make or rescind any Article or rule, or any amendment thereto, the Exchange shall forward written notice of such proposal together with a draft of the proposed Article, rule, rescission or amendment, as the case may be, to the Authority for its approval.

(3) Within two weeks after receipt of a notice under subsection (2), the Authority shall give written notice to the Exchange either that it disapproves of the whole or any specified part of the proposed Article, rule, rescission or amendment or that the proposed Article, rule, rescission or amendment, as the case may be, meets with its approval.

(4) The Authority may in a particular case, with the agreement of the Exchange, extend the period prescribed by subsection (3).

(5) The Authority may in writing request the Exchange to make, rescind or amend any Article or rule and, if the Authority makes such a request, the Exchange shall comply with the request as soon as practicable after its receipt by the Exchange.

13. (1) The Council shall keep or cause to be kept a register of the Exchange members and shall enter in the register the names and addresses of the Exchange members and the date on which each name was entered in the register or a member ceased to be an Exchange member.

(2) The register shall be evidence of the membership of the Exchange.

The Council of the Exchange.

9. (1) The business affairs of the Exchange shall be managed by a Council consisting of not less than seven persons appointed by the Authority who shall hold office until their successors are chosen or elected in accordance with the Articles.

(2) The Council may, as provided in the Articles, delegate such duties to such persons as it considers necessary to facilitate the operation of the Exchange and may appoint employees for these purposes.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Law, election of the Council shall be conducted in accordance with and in the manner prescribed by the Articles.

(4) All meetings of the Council, and voting at meetings, shall be governed by the provisions of the Articles.

General powers of the Council.

10. Subject to the provisions of this Law, the Council shall administer the affairs of the Exchange and the day to day operations of the Exchange and the provisions of the Companies Law relating to directors' duties of care and fiduciary duties shall, unless the context otherwise requires, apply in all respects to the Council members as if the words "Council member" or, as the case may require, "Council members" had been substituted for the words "director" and "directors" respectively wherever the latter expressions appear in the Companies Law.

Rules of the Exchange.

11. (1) In consultation with the Authority and subject to section 12, the Exchange shall make rules which provide for -

- (a) the types or classes of transactions which may be effected through the facilities of the Exchange;
- (b) the form and manner of execution of transactions effected through the facilities of the Exchange, and other trading requirements;
- (c) the entry into and termination of membership, and the disciplining by means of censure, fine suspension or otherwise, and regulation generally of the conduct of Exchange members;
- (d) the financial, record-keeping, capital adequacy and accounting requirements of Exchange members;
- (e) the requirements for listing securities to any one or more securities markets established and operated by the Exchange;
- (f) the suspension of trading in, and delisting of, any security listed on any one or more securities markets established and operated by the Exchange;
- (g) confidentiality with respect to information relating to the secure a profit or avoid a loss by reference to fluctuations in the value or price of a commodity or property of any description including any securities, financial instrument or any other derivative or in an index or other fact or designated for that purpose in that contract;

- (d) rights, options, or interests (whether described as units or otherwise) in or in respect of any of the foregoing or in respect of any currency, commodity, precious metal, metal or hydrocarbon or any other substance whatsoever;
- (e) certificates of interest or participation in, or temporary or interim certificates for, receipts for, or warrants to subscribe to or purchase, any of the foregoing;
- (f) any swap or other derivative; and
- (g) any other securities or other instruments determined by rules made by the Council.

"securities market" means a stock market or a place where, facility or arrangement by which (and situated in whole or in part in the Cayman Islands) securities are listed, regularly offered for purchase or sale or by reference to which transactions in securities are regularly entered into by or on behalf of competing buyers;

"unit trust" means a trust established by a trustee which for valuable consideration issues trust units in profits or gains arising from the acquisition, holding, management or disposal of investments by the trustee of the trust, the proper law of which is the Law of the Islands or the Law of any other jurisdiction.

Stock Exchange Authority.

3. (1) There is a Stock Exchange Authority which shall be responsible for the policy, regulation and supervision of the Exchange.

(2) The Authority consists of -

- (a) the Financial Secretary;
- (b) the Inspector of Financial Services;
- (c) the Attorney-General or his assignee; and
- (d) not less than two other members appointed by the Governor who shall act on the recommendation of the Financial Secretary.

(3) The other members of the Authority appointed by the Governor shall be appointed from among public officers who, in the opinion of the Financial Secretary, have had experience of, and shown capacity in, commercial, financial or administrative matters.

(4) The Governor in Council may make regulations with respect to -

- (a) the tenure of members and vacation of office by the members of the Authority;
- (b) the quorum, procedure of meetings, and determinations of the Authority;
- (c) the execution of instruments and the proof of documents purporting to be executed, issued or agreed by the Authority, the Chairman or any other member of the Authority.

(5) Subject to the provisions of any regulations made under subsection (4) the Authority shall have power to regulate its own procedure.

(6) The members of the Authority for and on behalf of the Government shall take all necessary steps to incorporate the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange Company in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Law within one month after the commencement of this Law.

4. The Exchange shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal and -

- (a) shall have the sole and exclusive right to -
 - (i) operate one or more securities markets in the Cayman Islands; and
 - (ii) use the name the Cayman Islands Stock Exchange; and
- (b) shall thereafter carry on its business under the powers conferred by and in accordance with this Law and the Companies Law, in so far as the provisions of the Companies Law are not in conflict with any of the provisions of this Law.

5. (1) The authorised and paid up share capital of the Exchange shall be such sum not less than $100,000 as the Authority may from time to time determine.

(2) The share capital of the Exchange shall be divided into shares of a par value of $1 each.

(3) The Authority shall on behalf of the Government subscribe for all of the shares of the capital of the Exchange.

(4) The Authority shall pay the amount of the subscription to the shares out of money appropriated by the Legislative Assembly for that purpose.

Purposes of the Exchange.

Additional powers of the Exchange.

6. The purposes of the Exchange are to engage in and carry on the business of establishing and operating one or more securities markets for the listing and trading of securities, which business shall include the admission of persons as Exchange members entitled by reason of membership of the Exchange to engage in the listing and trading of securities through the facilities made available by the Exchange for such purpose.

7. In furtherance of the purposes specified in section 6 the Exchange shall have the following powers and rights (in addition to and without prejudice to any powers conferred by this Law or the Companies Law):

- (a) to pay, satisfy or compromise any claims made against the Exchange or any one or more Exchange members which, in the opinion of the Council acting on the advice of the Authority, it may be deemed expedient to pay, satisfy or compromise, and to make gratuitous payments to or on behalf of one or more Exchange members which it may be deemed expedient to pay, satisfy or compromise;
- (b) to consider all questions connected with the business of the Exchange and to collect and circulate statistics and other information relating to any securities market established and operated by the Exchange and the securities listed on the Exchange; and the proprietary rights in respect of such statistics and other information shall be vested exclusively in the Exchange;
- (c) to make arrangements for the clearance of sales and purchases of securities, for the guarantee and fulfillment of contracts, agreements and undertakings relating to the trading of securities, and for the delivery of the securities so traded, with such parties as the Exchange may deem appropriate;
- (d) from time to time to set such charges, levies, commissions and fees to be payable by the Exchange members, issuers of listed securities and other users of the services and facilities provided by the Exchange as the Council shall think fit; and
- (e) to make and amend from time to time rules in accordance with section 11.

Articles of Association of the Exchange.

8. The Articles shall provide that -

- (a) a person who is not an Exchange member may be appointed a Council member;
- (b) a person who is not an Exchange member may be appointed a proxy holder; and
- (c) without prejudice to the appointment of other officers, the Exchange shall have a chairman and may, but shall not be required to, have a secretary.
